SUCCESS—Governor Luther Hodges, right, of North Carolina, explained the coordination of efforts and agencies under state leadership has been the key to North Carolina's success in attracting new industry and jobs. Governor Hodges was recent host to the Kentucky delegation visiting North Carolina on a fact finding tour. Confering with Governor Hodges are from left, Emerson Boushcamp, candidate for commissioner of agriculture, Wilson Wyatt, candidate for lieutenant governor, and Bert Condon, candidate for governor. All three Democrats seeking election in the November 3 general election.
