Myers Teen-Age Club

The first meeting of the Myers Teen-Age 4-H Club was held at the Cassidy Creek Methodist Church, December 14, 7:00 p.m. slow time. Mr. Luther Whitaker, 4-H supervisor, was present to tell us about the 4-H clubs, and of our duties as a member. There were fourteen teen-agers present.

The following were elected as officers: president, Jimmy Letcher; vice-president, Faye Evans; secretary, June Bretz; reporter, Jenie Barnett; recreational leader, Sue Gray; song leader, Linda McClanahan. After the election of officers we saw a movie "The Spirit of Christmas." Everyone enjoyed it very much. The meeting was adjourned with the 4-H club pledge. We urge all teen-agers to come and bring their parents.—Jenie Barnett, reporter.
