Little League officials plan for coming season

Officers and managers of the Nicholas County-Carlisle Little League met Feb. 12 and laid plans for the forth-coming Little League baseball season.

It was noted that Little League met with much success last year and that it meant much to every boy who participated. In addition it was pointed out that contributions would be needed for the regular league fund. Anyone wishing to help in a worthy cause is asked to contact Ralph Shearer, Little League treasurer.

The four sponsoring organizations will be responsible for replacing any needed equipment for their representative teams.

The schedule arranged thus far:

Try-out Day, Saturday, April 11.

Opening Day for Little League, Tuesday, May 12.

Game time—First game at 5:30, second to follow in 10 minutes.

Games will be held on Tuesday and Friday.

The next organizational meeting will be held at the court house Thursday, March 26 at 7:30 p.m. Everyone interested in Little League is asked to attend.

SEEK MEMBERS—W. O. Doyle, Harvey Wagoner and Howard Sidle, all of the Farm Bureau membership committee, boning up on the advantages of being a member of the Nicholas County FB. Two other members of the committee not present when the photo was made were Glenn Hardin and Robert Hatton.—Straw photo

Insurance executive Robert B. Hansley honored at 'This Is Your Life' party

Insurance executive Robert B. Hensley walked into the Flag Room of the Kentucky Hotel Sunday afternoon expecting to see a demonstration of photography. Instead he saw a life creation of his life.

The 47-year-old businessman, politician, and civic leader was honored as "a great Kentuckian" during an hour-long "This Is Your Life" program.

Some 1,500 friends and well-wishers from all over the state, including Governor Chandler and Lieutenant Governor Harry Lee Waterfield, attended.

Thirty-five relatives, former co-workers, and friends took part in the program. Bert Blackwell, WAVE television director, was the master of ceremonies.

Hensley, who lives at 133 Council Road, became president of Kentucky Insurance Company, Life Insurance of Kentucky, and Kentucky Industries Trust Company when they were chartered here in 1956.

Headed State Agency

He helped to raise $11,000,000 to organize the Green River Steel Company in Owensboro in 1953. He is now a director of the company.

Hensley began work as a legal clerk with the Kentucky Unemployment Compensation Commission in Frankfort in 1937. He became acting executive director in 1941 when Vego E. Barnes went into military service.

Has U. K. Law Degree

Hensley entered the Army a year later and was promoted to lieutenant colonel before being discharged in 1946. He served as secretary to former Governor Earle Clements and practiced law here before entering the insurance business four years ago.

He is now treasurer of the Democratic State Central Executive Committee.

Hensley was born in Cleves, Ohio but lived most of his early life in Boone County, near Burlington. He received his law degree from the University of Kentucky.

He is married to the former Dorothy Curry of Carlisle. They have seven children, Robert B., Jr., 16, twins Jeanne Molloy and Mary A'llern, 14; Timothy Gregg, 8, Richard Craig, 12, Debbie, 4, and Stevie, 2.

Among those from here attending were Mr. and Mrs. William Harper, Miss Jane Harper, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harper, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Curry, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Wilson.

ROTARY MEETING

The Carlisle Rotary will meet Thursday, Feb. 26 at the Masonic Hall at 6:30. There will be a musical program with Don Trivette in charge.

She was selected competitively with other 4-H members throughout the State on the basis of her 4-H Club achievements and all around leadership ability. She is the second Nicholas Countian to receive this award. Glenn W. Clay attended Camp Minnwanca in 1939.—Straw photo

Clay, Gillispie on Mexican tobacco project

Glenn Clay, Nicholas County tobacco seed producer and farmer and Fred Gillispie, Bourbon county farmer, left Wednesday, Feb. 25 for Topic, Mexico to spend approximately three months on a tobacco project with the Trans-World Tobacco Company.

They are enroute to Mexico by automobile and expect to visit some of the attractions around Mexico City during their stay.

CHS Commerce department established 32 years ago

by Supt. Tobey Rose

The commercial department of the Carlisle high school was established in 1927 with Miss Ellen Thomas as head of the department. The department was established with the view that it would assist graduates to find positions with professional and business firms upon graduation.

Only bookkeeping and typewriting courses were offered the first year. Since, from time to time, courses in accounting, business arithmetic, shorthand, general business and office practice have been added.

The varied courses provide all-around training and enable

Burley quotas approved by 1103 in Nicholas

Results of the Burley Tobacco referendum held here Tuesday were released Wednesday by H. S. Vice, chairman of the county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office.

Marketing quotas were approved by 1103 of the 1950 eligible voters in Nicholas County. Three ballots were cast against the quotas. One of these three was challenged and added in favor of quotas. A total of 1107 ballots were cast.
