CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

The apostle John's inspiring account of the raising of Lazarus by Christ Jesus is featured in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Life" which will be heard at Christian Science services Sunday.
Selections to be read from Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include the following (75:13): "Jesus restored Lazarus by the understanding that Lazarus had never died, not by an admission that his body had died and then lived again. Had Jesus believed that Lazarus had lived or died in his body, the Master would have stood on the same plane of belief as those who buried the body, and he could not have resuscitated it."
The Golden Text is from Psalms (11:14,17): "The Lord is my strength and song, and is become my salvation . . . I shall not die, but live, and declare the Works of the Lord."

Indiana Paper Says
You Can't Please Everyone

Some newspaper friends of ours have compiled a list of the advice, criticism and complaints that plague the life of the average newspaper publisher. Here are just a few of them:

"My name was spelled wrong in last week's paper. If you can't do better than that, you can stop sending it."

"When you print this story about my daughter's wedding, use it just like it's written. It's exactly right, so don't change a word."

"Say, how about keeping that item about me getting arrested for drunk driving out of the paper. It's not much news to anyone."

"I hate farm news. Why clutter up a paper with that stuff.

"I think your farm news is pretty good, but there's not enough of it."

"If I couldn't write an editorial any better than you do, I wouldn't have any at all."

"Why don't you ever publish poetry?"

"When do you cut your stencils"

"You're lucky you only have to work one day a week."

"Why don't you put out a daily?"

BAKED apples for dessert are a real treat when they're stuffed with a combination of raisins, grated orange rind, brown sugar and cinnamon Serve warm with thick cream.

Hot buttered rice is especially delicious when seasoned with a sprinkling of instant minced onion, chopped parsley and grated raw carrot.

THIS WEEK'S RECIPE
Coffee Walnut Mousse
(Makes 1½ pints)

16 large marshmallows
¼ cup hot coffee
Few grains salt
½ teaspoon vanilla
1 cup heavy cream, whipped
¾ cup finely chopped walnuts

Chop marshmallows in quarters. Combine with coffee and salt; cook and stir over low heat until marshmallows dissolve. Blend in vanilla, cool until mixture thickens Fold in whipped cream and walnuts Turn into freezing tray and freeze at coldest setting until barely firm, then reset temperature control at normal

Simple desserts sparkle when you dress them a bit, like vanilla pudding which has miniature marshmallows starred in while still warm. When cool, fold in drained fruit cocktail.

A delightful dessert sauce can be made by blending honey, butter, lemon juice and grated rind and serve them over unfrosted spice cake.

Cabbage makes a nice crisp salad, tasty, too, when it's blended together with commercially soured cream to which a dash of horseradish has been added.

Pork chops are flavorful when dredged in flour, then browned in fat and simmered gently or baked slowly with apricot whole fruit nectar replacing the water

Inside the walls of C.H.S.

by Harriet Clark

Hello! Here I am back to tell you the latest from C.H.S.

Tuesday night we played Mt. Olivet at home. Then next Tuesday night we play Georgetown at home The boys play better when we have a chance to come to the gym and see them.

Friday afternoon, the Srs are having a food sale in front of the drug store. There'll be candy, pies, probably a cake or two, and other foods that usually are sold at bake sales.

Last Thursday, as I told you, the Jrs and Srs met to decide where we're going on the trip. The Srs. decided that Florida was a nice state to travel in. The Jrs. agreed, so it's "Florida or Bust" (and if we don't get there, we probably will) it's going to be an expensive trip, but if we get the money, it'll be worth every cent. That's why we'll be having food sales, socials, chili suppers, and other money-raisers. We'll do anything to get to Florida.

Thursday morning, the monthly meetings of the Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y will take place. The Hi-Y boys are losing Gordon White, their president, since Gordon now has sixteen credits and is leaving our school until May. Then he'll come back to graduate with us Not only the Hi-Y will miss Gordon. All of us C.H.S.er's think he's "one of the best!"

School papers will be on sale Friday. The Musketeer Review is a monthly paper and only costs a dime. That wouldn't bankrupt anybody. I think the paper is very good but maybe I'm prejudiced. Why don't you buy one and see what you think?

Wednesday we're having a movie entitled "Hot Rod". All these car-crazy boys will really enjoy this one.

This week ends the first semester. Some of us were wondering if we'd ever live until Friday. So far we're still hanging on. Believe me, trying to remember everything you learned in five months, in one hour isn't easy. But in another day or two, it will be over and we can breathe easy again.

That's about it for this week. It may not cover much space but, believe me, those things I told you about, certainly take time. So until next week, Toodle-doo

COMMENT
Kay T. Fisher
This is the latest on our new state. Perhaps you would like to give it some thought.
Just to add to the problems of the day, consider now what should be the abbreviation for our new state—Alaska
Some say no abbreviation is needed. just call it Alaska This is a direct slap at Iowa, with an even shorter name, which long has been reduced to Ia. It is even ruder to Utah, or U., and Ohio, or O.
Alas, might be acceptable to Texans, who are suffering some hurt pride from now having the second largest state, but it probably wouldn't go with Alaskans Ala is out, having been preempted by Alabama.
Alkai is more fitting with the sourdough element, but not the new church group on the Yukon. Aka, and Ak are awkward, and Al. would never do.
There is only one solution, the briefest. It is merely "A." Really, it's no problem at all.—Burlington (Iowa) Hawk-Eye Gazette
