CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

The divine, eternal source of all life and action will be stressed at Christian Science services Sunday.
Highlighting the Lesson-Sermon on "Life" is the Golden Text from John (5: 26): "As the Father hath life in himself; so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself."
From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy the following will be read (289: 32): "Because Life is God, Life must be eternal, self-existent. Life is the everlasting I AM, the Being who was and is and shall be, whom nothing can erase."
Scriptural selections include this passage from 1 John (2: 25): "And this is the promise that he hath promised us, even eternal life."

Little Rock

By Mrs. Perry Vice

Mr. and Mrs. Brooks Hinkle, Mrs. Mary Trent, Mrs. Luther Brierly, Mrs. Clayton Florence and Mrs. Perry Vice were in Bardstown Friday evening where they attend the Musical Drama of the Stephen Foster story at the Old Kentucky Home State Park.

Amid the lovely surroundings and charm of the Old South, the new Amphitheater was a perfect setting for the life story of Foster, the dreamer, who heard "America Sing" and who wrote many songs historically and culturally significant, noted throughout the world as the greatest composer of plantation melodies. The drama was beautiful, dreamy and full of charm of bygone days.

"...without Me, YOU Can Do Nothing"

It would be hard to convince some people that these words of Our Lord apply to them.

Like the Pharisees of Christ's time, they attribute their successes to their own merits. They may concede that they "get the breaks" now and then, but in the main they vainly think they have succeeded because of their own superior qualities. "Oh, sure," they may say, "God has been good to me"... but most of the credit they take unto themselves.

In this age of self-glorification ... when so many seem convinced of the necessity of "rooting" their own horn ... the Catholic Church may seem out of step in preaching its 2,000-year-old message of humility. Only likewise unpopular with some people will be the Church's reminder that the sin of Pride still ranks first among the seven capital sins condemned by Christ.

Our hope here, however, is not so much to convince the wilfully arrogant of the error of their ways. Our purpose, rather, is to point out that the capital sin Pride covers a multitude of other sins which are subtle and not easy to recognize. The Catholic thinking in this respect may not appeal to those afflicted by Pride, but we think it will be received with a spirit of good-will and approval by humble people of all faiths.

Pride, for example, can be a worse sin than murder under certain circumstances. It was the Original Sin. It is often the lamenting sin of the individual who demands to see the divine credentials and assumes to judge God. And there are sins prompted by Pride which violate no civil law, yet are deeply offensive to God.

The Catholic Church constantly reminds its people to acknowledge their weaknesses and to confess their sins ... to realize that human merits are from God and are not due to the worthiness of the individual. This confession of unworthiness is among the very first prayers uttered by the priest and the people at Mass, when they proclaim to God and to "all the saints" in heaven that they have sinned ... "through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault."

Catholics, of course, are exposed to the same occasions for sinning as other people. And like others, they have the God-given free will to choose between sinning and not sinning. On the other hand, they have the guidance and help of the Church ... and the Sacraments ... in the struggle against temptation. How this help works with respect to the Seven Capital Sins — Pride, Anger, Sloth, Envy, Covetousness, Gluttony and Lust — is shown in a helpful pamphlet which we will send you free on request. It will be mailed in a plain wrapper; nobody will call on you. Ask for Pamphlet No. KC-54.

Beat rising food prices with an ELECTRIC home freezer

You can save on food costs in two ways — by growing and freezing your own — that gives you the biggest savings — or by taking advantage of low seasonal prices and special bargain offers.

Either way you beat rising food prices with a home freezer.

And, remember, food takes more of your money than any other single item.

An electric home freezer is the safe modern way to preserve and store food.
