REDEDICATION ON FLAG DAY

During the summer parents can help their children to grow toward maturity by playing with them and then letting them play alone in a world of their own, free from adult demands.

At our house this past week the school was moved, from the kitchen to the newly acquired little girl bedroom upstairs. Not every home may have a school in it but it seems so natural at ours. This school is equipped with real antique school desks contributed from a neighbor's home.

Carlsruhe spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Mervie Kenyon and son. Headquarters Vacation Bible school was held on Friday evening with an average attendance of 66.

COMPANET she remarked

"I see children happy at play long except for having everything all ready to go, we feel the same children who put into them. Then the imagination grows like the tree of life, enriching the air."
