COMMENT

Kay T. Fisher

Late last Wednesday afternoon we had an interesting visit at the Mercury office from Jelly Asbury and I have had some correspondence concerning Mr. J. T. Potts of Louisville, and you have read some of his poetry in this Column. So it was a pleasure to, at last, meet him in person. A true Kentucky gentleman.

* * * * *

As I write this Monday morning with fingers numb with cold, I'm afraid to make any caustic comment on the fact that this is among other kinds of week. 'Beat the Heat Week'.

* * * * *

The world is divided into people who do things and people who get the credit. Try if you can, to belong to the first class. There's far less competition.

—Dwight Morrow
