Wool growers
Lamb payments are made only to producers who have owned lambs 30 days or more, and the amount of payment is based on weight gain of the lambs during the seller's ownership.

Agreement signed to promote wool, lamb use
A new 3-year agreement between government and industry for a program to promote increased use of lamb and wool has been announced by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, according to word received at the Kentucky Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Office, Lexington, Kentucky.

The agreement is between the Secretary of Agriculture and the American Sheep Producers Council. It is being continued on the basis of a referendum of sheep growers, in which, on a national basis, 69 percent of the growers voting producing 81 percent of the sheep represented, favored continuing the agreement. In Kentucky 80 percent of the growers voting producing 79 percent of the sheep represented favored the agreement.

The program will be financed by deductions from incentive payments earned by producers in the national wool program.

Under terms of the agreement, deductions will be made from payments next summer for the 1959 marketing year (April 1, 1959 through March 31, 1960) at the rate of 1 cent per pound of shorn wool marketed and 5 cents per hundred pounds of live weight of unshorn lambs marketed. Deductions for the 1960 and 1961 marketing years will be made at such rates as are agreed upon, not more than the 1959 rate.

Combs first WW II vet as Ky's. governor
Bert T. Combs will be the first World War II veteran to take the oath of office as Kentucky's governor.

Combs entered the ranks as a private when he volunteered in Sept. 1942. He attended officers candidate school and before the war ended was a captain.

Early in 1954 young Lt. Bert Combs went overseas to serve on Gen. Douglas MacArthur's staff in the war crimes department. Eventually he became chief of the investigating section.

For his work in apprehending and prosecuting Japanese war criminals Capt. Combs won the bronze star and was decorated by the Philippine government.

After the war Combs took an active part in veterans affairs. He helped organize the Floyd County Overseas Veterans, Inc. and was incorporator, charter member and first judge advocate of Walter Karr Bowling post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. Also, he has been a active member of the Prestonsburg American Legion post and the 40 and 8 Society.

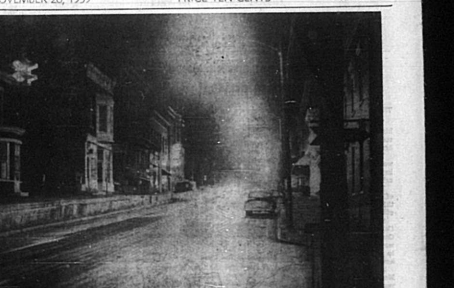
The Carlisle Mercury



BEFORE AND AFTER—Of course everyone who sees Carlisle at night now, can't help but appreciate the brightness of the new mercury-vapor lighting system installed by the Kentucky Utilities Company last week at the behest of Carlisle's city council. At top left is the before picture which should give a good comparison and show just how drab the city streets were at night. Above fewer lights, but four times brighter. Both pictures taken under different lighting conditions were made from approximately the same spot. The photograph made with mercury vapor lighting also exposed only one-eighth of the time necessary to record the before shot. The new lights were ordered by the city council several weeks ago after Kentucky Utilities Manager Morris Whiteley approached the council of their cost. The light from one mercury-vapor lamp is equal to 20,000 lumens; a lumen being one unit of light. The old lights gave forth approximately 2500 lumens. Elsewhere in this issue is a letter from the Retail Division of the Chamber of Commerce complimenting the council on their foresight—Mercury photos

Drunk slashes night policeman William T. Bealert
Night Policeman William T. Bealert suffered a painful slash with a straight razor wielded by Leonard Morris Sunday evening about 6 o'clock. The wound in Bealert's left side required four stitches to close. He was taken to the Nicholas County hospital for treatment and then removed to his home.

The incident began on Broadway in front of Allison's Restaurant, when Mr. Bealert attempted to arrest Morris for drunkness. Following the cutting Morris fled to his home on High street in Dorseyville State Trooper Ed Post and Police Chief Eugene Purvis went to Morris' home where Morris again wielded a straight razor in an attempt to prevent the officers from arresting him.

Chief Purvis stated that it was necessary for him to fire two shots into the floor in order to get several children and others around Morris out of the way. Following the two shots, Purvis said Jack scattered like rabbits, upsetting tables and dishes. Morris then followed behind him and Chief Purvis' third shot caught Morris in the hip. I'm certainly glad I didn't kill the fellow," Chief Purvis said. The shot higher, the bullet would have gone thru and struck the man's wife

Held To Grand Jury
Morris appeared before County Judge Floyd Clark Monday afternoon at 1 a court of inquiry where he was held to the February grand jury under bond of $6,500 He was returned to the Nicholas County jail in default of bond. Arresting officers Police Chief Eugene Purvis and State Trooper Ed Post were absolved of blame in the shooting of Morris Morris was taken to the Nicholas County hospital for treatment and then placed in the Nicholas County jail. He is charged with attempt to kill and flourishing a deadly weapon.

Assistance was also rendered by Sgt. V. K. Miller of the State Police and Mayor Bill Power.

HEALTH DEPARTMENT CLOSES FOR HOLIDAY

Four businessmen contact factory representative
Three businessmen and Carlisle's mayor, representing the Chamber of Commerce, Jaycees and the City, were in Georgetown Monday, following the request of the Electric Company for a conference.

Ralph Theodore, a representative of the company which manufactures electric blankets and other electrical parts stated his company was interested in finding a suitable location for storage of materials. The area mentioned was at least 50,000 square feet.

A spokesman for the group said that no definite plans were revealed but that Mr. Theodore expressed interest in obtaining further information concerning Carlisle.

Those making the trip were Mayor Bill Power, Jack Morrison, Paul Garrett and Jimmy Carter

Raborn tells of visit to Spain
by Rev. W. R. Raborn

While waiting for a taxi to take me into Barcelona, I met a business man from New Zealand His remark to me was so typical of the attitude of all Anglo-Saxons that it has stuck in my mind He said. "I wish they would quit fooling around and get our bags ready. then never get anything done" We want to get things done while the Latin thinks that "tomorrow will be all right to get this done, so why hurry It was tomorrow before we got started because we didn't get into Barcelona until after one a.m.

After having breakfast in my room — which is typical of European hotels—I started out to find the McNeeleys. Their name was not listed in the telephone book. The switchboard operator tried "information" for me and had no luck so I took a taxi out to their address. It was an apartment house with many floors on it. Each floor had four apartments on it and they were numbered from one to four on each floor. Their apartment number was 3—so I had to knock on the door of number three on each of the floors and try to make myself understood in my halting Spanish Finally on the fifth floor a lady came to the door who knew that the McNeelys used to live there and gave me the new address—a town many miles away.

By that time the day was almost gone—so returned to the hotel to prepare for a trip to the theatre to see an exhibition of Spanish folk dancing and the Spanish music. It was beautiful but soon became monotonous. There was always the same rhythm, the same castanets and the same noise being held on the front steps. It was a feast day and there was much merriment in the air.

Quite by accident I stopped in the Museum of the "Crown of Aragon." Here I saw a room that was decorated with carvings to represent the various fruits that Columbus brought back from the New World. As we went up the circular stairs I looked out a window and saw a large court made by the transept and nave of the

It was reliably reported that Brooks Pitman caught Calvin Bird's pass into the stands Saturday at the Kentucky-Tennessee football game.

Tobacco loan rate schedules
Schedules of loan rates for the 1959 crops of burley, fire-cured, and dark air-cured tobacco have now been announced, according to word received at the Nicholas County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office.

The grade rates for burley, based on an average loan level of 57.2 cents per pound, range from 24 to 72 cents. Fire-cured rates, based on an average of 38 cents per pound, range from 13 to 64 cents. Rates for dark air-cured range from 29 to 52 cents.

Price support will be made available to cooperating growers through farmer cooperative associations which will utilize the services and facilities of association warehouses and leaf packing firms

Keep Christ in Christmas is Nicholas Jaycee theme
After many months of plans and preparation, the Carlisle Community Christmas program will get under way Saturday evening, Dec. 5, at 8:00 p.m. (fast time) with a parade. The theme for the entire Christmas program is "Keep Christ in Christmas" Saturday evening's parade will be the largest Christmas parade ever assembled in Carlisle.

The parade will form at the Dairy Queen, and then will proceed east on Main street to the court house, then north on Broadway to Chestnut street and back around the court house square.

Units in the parade will be a Police Escort, National Guard Color Guard, Carlisle High School Band, Junior Chamber of Commerce float, Carlisle P.T.A. float, Cub Scout float, Cub Scout Marching Unit, Rotary Club float, Nicholas County High School Band, and the Chamber of Commerce float with Santa Claus.

Awards will be made to the three best floats, judged on the beauty and relationship to the theme. Announcement of winners will be announced shortly following the parade by the judges There will be three judges, one local and two from out of town.

Following the announcement of the winning floats, there will be a presentation of the key to the City by Mayor Bill Power to Santa Claus, and the lights on the Court House Christmas trees will be officially turned on.

Community Chorus to perform Dec. 13
On Sunday evening, Dec. 13, 7:30 p.m. (C.D.T.) at the Carlisle Christian Church there will be a Choral Union service featuring the music of the season as performed by the Community Chorus of Carlisle under the direction of Don Tri-vette, music director at the Carlisle City Schools. The Community Chorus is being accompanied by Mrs. Virginia Oatzery. The chorus is made up of interested townspeople, the members of church choirs, and the Carlisle High School Chorus.

Music to be performed at the Union Service is of a calibre usually done by professional organizations, and is known world-wide. Featured soloists are Bobby McFarland and Mrs. Frances Buntin. Mr. McFarland will sing the alto aria from Handel's "The Messiah", which preceeds the chorus "O Thou That Tellest Good Tidings to Zion". Mrs. Buntin will sing the beautiful and familiar "O Holy Night" with chorus accompaniment.

The tentative order of music to be presented in the service is Break Forth O Beauteous Heav'nly Light, Bach (from the Christmas Oratorio); O Thou That Tellest Good Tidings To Zion Arise, Handel (from the Messiah); For Unto Us A Child Is Born, mountain folk carol; The Coventry Carol, an English folk carol from the 16th Century; O Holy Night, Pratch; and Alleluia, Randall Thompson.

Traditional Christmas carols will be sung by the Community Chorus and congregation. This will be the first time in the history of the church that the usual Sunday evening service will be a presentation of the public is urged to attend.

Editor's note: The Nicholas County Jaycees are to be congratulated on their plans for this first Christmas parade, which we sincerely hope will become an annual event.

BOBBY BOBO will appear here Friday night, Nov. 27 with Buddy Ross, Freddie Langdon, and Brownie Reynolds of the Midwestern Hayride troupe at a dance sponsored by the Jaycees. Proceeds will be used to air condition the Nicholas County hospital. The round and square dance will begin at 8:30 at the Armory.

Memorial Library being enlarged
The Fiscal Court has offered additional space in the basement of the courthouse to be used by the Memorial Library. A door has been cut between the present library room and an adjoining room, which was not in use. Shelves will be added, and the additional space will relieve the present crowded condition, giving more room for the constant flow of new books.
