Storm wrecks barn near Moorefield Shrout takes clothing store job

Thursday, October 5, 1939
A LITTLE YAPPIN'
 by Nattie Group
Home to Swine
 One barn in Nicholas County was wrecked and nine barns in the Bethel ridge section of Bath county, just over the state line, were wrecked by a heavy wind storm which accompanied a hard rain last Friday afternoon. The barn in this county belonged to C. S. White on the Moorefield road.

A general rain throughout the day on the Moorefield road temporarily relieved a short-age of stock water on the Moorefield road. A large residence on the Moorefield road was destroyed by fire about noon Tuesday. The residence was occupied by Arthur Hubbard and family who need a part of their furnishings.

Billie Stephens Tuesday purchased the grocery store of Dr. W. G. McGowan on the Greater building and will immediately begin restocking and re-decorating the store.

Must Brother Tag Along On Dates?

WHY DOES BROTHER HAVE TO TAG ALONG ON DATES?

One of the important reasons for having a brother along on dates is that he can help you in many ways. He can help you with your school work, he can help you with your social life, and he can help you with your future plans.

Brothers are a blessing to their sisters. They are always ready to help and support them in every way. They are the ones who stand by their sisters through thick and thin.

KENTUCKIANS IN WASHINGTON

There were several complaints received from Ohio, Tennessee, one from Kentucky, and one from Indiana. The complaint from Ohio was that the state government was not doing enough to help the farmers. The complaint from Tennessee was that the state government was not doing enough to help the farmers. The complaint from Kentucky was that the state government was not doing enough to help the farmers. The complaint from Indiana was that the state government was not doing enough to help the farmers.

FARM BUREAU in Action

Farmers who are interested in the Farm Bureau should contact their local Farm Bureau office. The Farm Bureau is a national organization that works to help farmers in many ways. It provides information, services, and support to farmers throughout the country.

The Farm Bureau is a non-profit organization that is dedicated to the welfare of the farmer. It works to improve the lives of farmers and their families by providing them with the resources they need to succeed.

OTHER VIOLATIONS

There were several other violations reported in the state. These violations included illegal gambling, public intoxication, and disorderly conduct. The state government is committed to enforcing the law and maintaining the peace and order of the state.

The state government will continue to work to address these violations and ensure that the law is enforced. It will continue to provide support and assistance to the people of the state.
