ESTATE AUCTION
477 ACRES OF NICHOLAS COUNTY'S FINEST FARMLAND
SATURDAY, OCT. 24th
10:30 A. M. FAST TIME

Location: 7 miles Southeast of Carlisle, Ky., near village of Moorefield on Ky. Highway 36. Short drive from Mt. Sterling, Owingsville, Flemingsburg and in the center of one of Central Kentucky's best farming sections.
Farm being sold to settle the Estate of The Late C. S. Whaley and will be sold first in 4 tracts with the right reserved to group tracts if heirs see fit.

Tract No. 1. Known as the homeplace and containing 290 acres, well fenced, adequately watered, with good highway frontage. 1959 tobacco base 6.21 acres and it produces the best. Improvements include lovely 8 room 2 story main dwelling, 2 tenant houses, 2 7 bent tobacco barns, large stock barn and numerous other outbuildings.

Tract No. 2. Joins Tract No. 1 and contains 109 acres of the same high type bluegrass soil. Tobacco base of 2.23 for 1959. Improved with 6 room frame home, tobacco barn with shed, double crib and other buildings. This is a dandy good smaller farm and a proven money maker.

Tract No. 3. Contains 45 acres of good unimproved land and lies directly across highway from tract No. 2. Has abundance of grass and water, building sites galore and tobacco base for 1959 was .97.

Tract No. 4. 23½ acres across highway from tract No. 1, has everlasting water many beautiful building sites and is improved with 6 bent tobacco barn. Had .71 acre base for 1959.

This sale will definitely dispose of Nicholas County's most desirable farm land. All cropland cultivated in 1959 has been seeded. This is a tractor farm from end to end and is well kept and cared for as any farm in the entire section. Near tobacco markets, livestock markets, on excellent highway and must be seen to be appreciated. Possession with deed on or before March 1st, 1960. After sale of farm we will sell several hundred bales good alfalfa hay, rotary mower, horse mower and hammer mill.

Inspection of farm any time by contacting Charles Whaley, Carlisle, Ky.

CONFIDENT VISITOR—Bert Combs, Democratic candidate for Governor of Kentucky, is shown with Nicholas County Democratic chairman, Ben Smoot and County Attorney Charles Cox, on his visit to Carlisle last Friday. Combs spoke briefly at the court house on Mr. Robinson's ignorance of the needs of the Kentucky farmer.

Adult education class November 3

The first adult education class of this semester will be held Tuesday, November 3, at 7:30 p.m. CDT, in the Home Economics department at Nicholas County high school. The six lessons in this semester's course will be on crafts. Plans for the entire course will also be discussed at the Tuesday night meeting. The first lesson will be on inexpensive crafts.
The classes will be taught by Jewell Deene Ellis, home economics teacher, and Miss Billie Reed and Miss Sue Ernst, student teachers from the University of Kentucky.
Refreshments will be served at the meeting.

14 enrolled at U of K

Enrollment at the University of Kentucky has set another new record. With late registrants still trickling in for extension courses, this year's total has already passed the 10,000 mark, compared to last year's figures of 9,750. University officials predict an enrollment of 15,000 by 1965.
Students from Nicholas County include Charles R. Carter, Larry W. Crawford, Sidney D. Crouch, James F. Hardin, Wanda H. Huddleson, Ned G. Jennings, Janet S. Mitchell, Charles F. Moore, Russell T. Prather, James W. Shepherd Jr., William R. Straw, Edwin C. Thomas, Kenneth Vice, and John S. Willis.

Sgt. Charles Blake returned to his base at Fort Ard, California, Saturday after spending a leave of absence with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Early Blake. He was accompanied by his sister, Miss Pauline Blake, for a three weeks vacation.

UNICEF collection Friday

The United Nations Committee will meet the TRICK OR TREATERS FOR ALL THE CHILDREN on Friday evening from 5:30 on at the Presbyterian Church to give them the badges or stickers for their containers. Please note that the youngsters will call on you Friday, October 30. This will correct any misapprehensions as to date. You are asked to give a penny to each child that calls at your home for the United Nations Children's Fund. Remember one penny will provide the vaccine to protect a child from tuberculosis, or buy five glasses of nourishing milk which is vital to a child's growth. Five pennies will provide the penicillin to cure a child of a crippling tropical disease called yaws.
The children will return to the church when they have finished trick or treating to turn in their collections to the committee composed of Mrs. W. G. Irvin, Mrs. Roger Womack and the Rev. W. R. Raborn and receive a gift from the committee.

FIRE RAZES RESIDENCE

Fire destroyed the home of Mr and Mrs Hanson Ellington on the Dixie highway east of here at 3:30 p.m. Thursday.
Ellington, who was at the barn when he discovered the blaze, returned to the house and was able to save the living room furniture. His wife, Detetan at the Nicholas County hospital, was at work.
The fire apparently started from a defective flue. No estimate of the loss has been made.
