volved, was treated for a laceration on his chin and lacerations of both knees. Wasson's son, Ronald, 18, a passenger in the car with his father, suffered numerous lacerations about the face both were released from the hospital after treatment.

According to Bourbon County Sheriff's Reuben Armsparger and James C. Pruitt, who investigated the accident, the Hunt car traveling north had just passed another vehicle and was in the wrong lane of traffic. Hunt attempting to get back into the right lane when the vehicle started to skid sideways. It was struck broadside by the Wasson car, which was traveling south.

The officers said the Wasson car ran into the ditch on the right side of the road. The front end of the Wasson car was badly damaged. The Hunt car was demolished.

Officers said Hunt was thrown out of his car by the impact.

established for the land offered in the request for rate. If necessary, a priority system will be used to determine which offers are accepted.

Contracts under the Conservation Reserve may run for as long as 10 years. During the time of the contract, the farmer will receive an annual rental payment on the reserved land for the life of the contract, and he also will receive cost-sharing help in establishing an approved conservation practice.

For Kentucky, the basic per-acre rate of payment under the 1960 Conservation Reserve is $15.00, the same as under the 1959 program. The tentative acreage goal for the State is 112,000 acres, subject to consideration and recommendation by the State ASC Committee.

Dog losses return $1667 to County

Property owners in 70 Kentucky counties are being paid $33,731.06 for losses due to dogs during the past year, Agriculture Commissioner Ben Butler, reveals.

Property owners are indemnified through the State Live-stock Fund for valid claims. The Livestock Fund is created by the sale of dog licenses at the rate of $1.50 per tag and kennel licenses for $10 or $15 dependent upon the number of dogs in the kennel. Both types of licenses are good for one year from July 1.

Refunded to property owners in Nicholas County was $1,667.72.

Marion county had the largest number of claimants, 37, and will receive the largest share of money from the Livestock Fund, $2,477.59

Consolidation of elementary schools in Nicholas County probable this year

At a special meeting of the Nicholas County Board of Education held on August 25, the Board considered the recommendations of the Department of Education which were proposed for immediate action. The recommendations are as follows

We (Sam Taylor and D. C. Anderson, Supervisors in the State Department of Education) have just completed another visit on Aug. 24 to your school at Headquarters. The improvements that you have underway there meets our approval. In the process of this visit we have gone over with Mr. Wesley some of the details of your educational program.

We are leaving this brief note for your consideration, pending a more detailed report from the Department of Education. In making the recommendations which we propose, we are thinking of the services and advantages which will come to your children not only for the present school year but in the years to come, also these recommendations are based upon the Minimum Program set up by the State for all Boards of Education in follow in improving their educational services. We feel that you as members of the Board of Education are just as interested in this program and want also the things that will mean most for your people, therefore, we propose these recommendations for immediate action

1. Since you have 8 full class room units at Parks from which you can receive a full share of support from the State, we recommend that you keep it as a temporary school for one year

2. Since you now have 12 new class rooms at Headquarters, together with a gymnasium, kitchen-cafeteria which can also be used as a multiple purpose room, we recommend that you bring the enrollment from Ellisville and all of the enrollment formerly accommodated at Myers, to the Headquarters School. Also we recommend that you bring all of the pupils at East Union except some 25 pupils that should be accommodated at Moorefield.

We believe that when you have carried out these recommendations you will have greatly improved your educational program and therefore qualify for all the State aid to which you are entitled.

The Board took a considerable amount of time in considering the adoption of the recommendations before adjourning took a vote on the adoption which resulted in two votes for adoption, one vote opposed, and two not voting.

While most of the members expressed their belief that the adoption of such program could not be delayed more than one year by action taken, they also looked at the advantages of going ahead with the program for this school year

The advantages considered were the possibility of adding instruction in band at all elementary schools once a week, the advantages of a gymnasium auditorium at Nicholas County Grade and advantages of indoor toilet facilities at both Nicholas County Grade and Moorefield

The Board also considered the loss of money involved in operating as past years. If the program proposed by the Department of Education were adopted the County would receive $600 from the State in additional money for a full time elementary principal while under the present plan of operation, Nicholas County has had to pay from its funds $675 for services of principals in the schools involved.

The Board also considered that in the past that the operation of East Union and Ellisville Schools had average daily attendance to justify approximately two and one-half teachers per school. The schools have had three teachers each which has been provided at the expense of the remaining schools. In other words part of the elementary operation was compelled to be overcrowded to operate the undercrowded schools. The consolidation services of one class room unit would be effective at a rate of $3,600.00 per year.

The Board has also recognized that the cost of operating for fuel, light and other costs is increased by operation of six elementary schools instead of a smaller number

With the fact eminent that the Board would be compelled to merge the elementary schools within a year, many patrons, teachers and board members have stated that rather than going through another year of anxiety and indecision that it would be better to adopt the recommended program for the oncoming school year, which, appears to have many advantages over past operations

Failure to adopt the program would mean that all of Nicholas County schools would be closed during the emergency schools. The rating of the elementary schools also has an influence on the high school rating No one could be sure of an all county rating when a better system of schools is possible with consolidation.

Myers school has been condemned and will not be used in grade school.

Football season opens Friday

Football season has rolled around again with the Carlisle high school Musketeers opening against the Paris Greyhounds at the Paris Friday night. As is usually the case the Musketeers need another week or so to get ready for the opening game. The team has been hampered by a shortage of personnel and also by some boys being out, thus, being unable to attend all practice sessions.

Fifteen boys have been working out, with W. J. Alexander, coaching the squad this week. It would be hard to single out any one boy as yet. Some of them have been working hard.

Jimmy Wells, a newcomer to the squad, has shown excellent progress. Wilson, showing his old form, is running at fullback, with halfback Straw, Ratliff, and Clark coming along. David Johnson again will be at the quarterback post and is doing a good job. Positions in the line are being fought for with Bussell and Hollar at ends, Underwood and Vanlandingham at the tackle posts, Compton and Dotson as guards, and Hunt at center.

Nicholas County high opens September 8

Announcement of the opening of the Nicholas County high school was made Wednesday by Charles Wilson, principal.

The school will start Tuesday, September 8 at 9 o'clock (slow time) with a general assembly program in the gymnasium. After assembly, registration of all students for their years work will be held.

Busses will run on regular time schedule and school will be dismissed at lunch time and no meals will be served in the school cafeteria the first day. Meals will be served on Wednesday when school begins full-day sessions.

Mr. Wilson states that French and general agriculture have been added to the curriculum. General agriculture is designed especially for boys and girls who cannot carry out a vocational agriculture program. It will have especial interest for persons interested in gardening, and care of home and surroundings.

Two new teachers are to be added to the staff: Glenn Dorah, who will be coach and physical education director. Mr. Dorrah with his family will make Carlisle their home. The new English teacher has not been assigned as yet. The English load of teachers will be shifted some for the new class in French.

There will be physical examinations due the first grade, fifth and ninth grades this year. Additional information will be given out on this matter the first day of school.

Several subjects will undergo a credit change in order to meet state requirements: band, world geography, and physical education.

The high school building is being cleaned and areas painted giving a nice neat building for the pupils this year. We will be delighted to have parents come and visit with us this year. Education is a cooperative enterprise, composed of students, parents and teachers, so we need to become acquainted as a working team for our children," Mr. Wilson added.

ROTARY MEETING

The Rotary Club will meet with the Carlisle Nicholas County Chamber of Commerce, Thursday, Sept. 3, at the regular unit's semi-annual fish fry to be held at the Nicholas County Fish and Game club house on the Hickory Ridge road. Time 6:30 p.m. fast time.

REGISTRATION BOOKS

County Clerk J. Berry Buchanaw reminds those persons who have so far failed to register, that Saturday, September 5 is the last day when registration books will be open.
