Fire destroys two tobacco barns; lard drops 5¢, sugar falls to 30¢

Thursday, September 14, 1939
Two tobacco barns in the county, both filled with green tobacco, were destroyed by fire last week. A large barn on the farm of W. E. Hill on the Miller station road contained about five acres of burley and a barn on the farm of Joe Booth near the Nicholas county line. The Nicholas tobacco barns were destroyed by fire last week. TODAY'S MEDITATION FROM THE UPPER ROOM

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 17
READ MATTHEW 7: 24-29
As the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead. (James 2: 26)
On night I failed to reach the connection train when I was about ten miles from home. I decided to go but remaining distance by hitchhiking.

Thursday, September 18, 1939
Stanley Collins, employee of the local telephone office, suffered broken arm when he fell from a tree.
Judge James P. Gregory, of Louisville, to speak at court house Saturday in the interest of the American Legion.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY
Our living faith finds practical expression through use of our hearts and our unreserved to action. Make our faith a practice. Prayers: Dear Father, help us to overcome the inertia of our hearts and our unreserved to action. Make our faith a practice. Prayers: Dear Father, help us to overcome the inertia of our hearts and our unreserved to action.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR
Norfolk, Va., Sept. 12, 1939
Dear Mr. Fisher:
I enclosed find check to extend my subscription to The Mercury another year.
I shall leave here Thursday to drive to Kentucky, to attend the Thomas family reunion at Blue Lick Park on Sept. 25.
If you have space in "The Mercury" for a brief news item, to remind our old school mates, friends and relatives of the date, we shall be deeply grateful to you.
Thanking you in advance for this anticipated favor, and for your past courtesies.
Yours sincerely,
W. J. Thomas

YOUR CITY CLERK SAYS

Did you ever figure your gas or water bill? Your check figures 1,200 of them every month and he might slip up on yours some time.
The rates are printed on all the billing cards you receive on 6000 gallons of water (You must have tank).
First 1000 Gal. For $2.00—$1.00
Next 4000 Gal. At 1.50—4.50
Next 1000 Gal. At 1.10—1.10
6000 Gal. Costs $14
You pay $14
Then try using 6000 Cu. Ft. of gas.
First 1000 Cu. Ft. For $2.00—$1.00
Next 1000 Cu. Ft. At .90—.90
Next 2000 Cu. Ft. At .80—.80
Next 1000 Cu. Ft. At .75—.75
6000 Cu. Ft. Cost $6.05
Add 2½ Kentucky Tax .18
You pay $6.23
It is not much fun to figure all these bills every month but think how you could make the old boy squirm when you catch him in an error, then maybe you would come in and trade some stickers with your CLERK.
