Deaths

James Everett Purcell

of Bourbon county, died at 12:30 a.m. Saturday at the Bourbon County hospital of injuries suffered when he was struck by an auto at 10:30 Friday night.

The man was struck by a car driven by William Edward Peters, 30, of Paris, as he crossed the Georgetown road bridge at the outskirts of Paris, a few feet from his home which was located at the other end of the bridge.

Deputy Sheriff Fred Boling said Peters told officers that he was crossing the bridge and was temporarily blinded by the lights of an oncoming car and did not see Purcell until his car was almost on the man. He said he swerved his car but was unable to avoid striking the man. The right headlight of the car struck Purcell, threw him onto the fender of the car and then rolled off and struck the side of the bridge.

When told of the man's death at the hospital, Peters went into shock and was admitted to the Bourbon County hospital. Saturday afternoon he was transferred to Lexington for further treatment.

Purcell is survived by an aunt, Mrs. Katherine Wright, Connersville, Ind., and three uncles, Ben Martin and E. C. Martin, both of Paris, and Omer Martin of Cincinnati.

Funeral services were conducted at 2 p.m. Monday at the Davis funeral chapel by the Rev. Cecil Watson. Burial in Carlisle cemetery.

Jesse B. Coy

Jesse B. Coy, 55, a farmer of Sadieville Route 1, Harrison county, died at 4:30 p.m. Saturday at his residence after an illness of six months. He was a native of Nicholas County.

Survivors are his wife, Mrs. Hallie Harney Coy; two daughters, Mrs. Richard Perkins and Mrs. William B. Withers; a son, Melvin Coy, all of Harrison county; two sisters, Mrs. Ollie Franklin and Mrs. Herman McClanahan, both of Harrison county; four brothers, Andy, E. T., Robert and Leslie Coy, all of Harrison county and seven grandchildren.

The body was at the Smith-Rees funeral home, where funeral services were conducted at 2 p.m. Tuesday by the Rev. Otis Essex. Burial in Battle cemetery. Pallbearers, Ophal, Harold and Robert Coy, E. T. and Aubrey Coy, Chester Franklin, Bobby Denniston and William S. Fogle.

Joseph Spencer Waugh

Joseph Spencer Waugh, 62, of 245 Mt. Airy avenue, Paris, died at 1:15 p.m. Saturday after suffering a heart attack at the Claiborne Farm where he was employed.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Cora Crump Waugh, Paris; a brother, Walter Waugh, Paris, and three stepdaughters, Mrs. Reynolds Fite, Paris; Mrs. Clarence Lindville, Mt. Olivet and Mrs. Viola White, Indianapolis, Ind.

Funeral services were conducted at 2:30 p.m. Monday at the Hinton-Turner funeral home. Burial in Paris cemetery.

Rhodes Donnell

Rhodes Donnell, 60, a native of Carlisle, died Monday at a hospital in Kirkland, Washington, where he had lived for the past 15 years, as a farm manager and horse trainer. He died from injuries received while training a horse which reared and fell on him, crushing his chest. He died within a few days, after pneumonia developed.

He was a son of the late John M. and Mrs. Lida Rhoden Donnell, and is survived by his wife and a step-daughter of Washington, one brother Franklin Donnell, Lawrenceburg, four sisters, Mrs. H. Stanley Blake, Carlisle, who received the message, Miss Elizabeth Donnell, Cynthiana, Mrs. Stanley Crim, Bourbon county and Miss Annie H. Donnell, Danville.

Funeral and burial will be at 1 p.m. Friday in Kirkland.

For all who have sons or daughters going away to school

"If I Seem Glad"

If I seem glad that you go, know it is because your going brings you closer to me than your comings do I have come to see absence is the truer presence! Time swings you back from this You can go no further than away Waving I expect you toward the day of return, when likely I shall grieve that returned, there is nothing for you to do but leave
