Thanks

If we were to chronicle all of the personal and telephone calls we have received during our first week "back in business" it would require more than this space.

With such expressions as "how I have missed the mill"—"Sorry I had bought my fall seed"—"There's no other feed like Tuxedo"—"Will be back to trade with you"—etc., etc., makes us feel that it was well worth our decision to get back on the job and to be associated again, in a business way, with our old friends and customers. We thank you for the business you have given us during the past week. It has been like old times again and we certainly do appreciate your favorable response to our opening.

We will continue to handle the best in all lines. We are specializing now on fall seeds—all grasses and grains—and of course have a full line of Tuxedo Feeds and other items usually handled here.

Yours truly,
W. R. Knight

Watts announces Demo co-chairmen, executive group

(Special to THE CARLISLE MERCURY) Leaders of the Combs-Wyatt and Waterfield forces in Nicholas County have united to present a solid front for the Democratic party in the fall election campaign.

John C. Watts, Democratic State chairman, has announced the appointment of a chairman, two co-chairmen and a seven-man executive committee. The chairman and co-chairmen, in that order, are:

R. W. Smoot, Carlisle, Avery Mitchell, Route 1, Moorefield, and Raymond Coy, Barterville.

On the executive committee are: Roger Dunn, Route 1, Myers; Calvin Wills, Route 4, Cynthiana; Noble Gillispie, Route 3, Carlisle; Billy Herrin, Route 3, Carlisle; Veach Delaney, Route 3, Carlisle; Joe A. Stone, Route 3, Carlisle; John Ring and Clay Snapp, both of Carlisle.

Watts said: "Democratic State campaign headquarters is most pleased to announce that these able leaders have agreed to work together for Nicholas County Democrats in the general election campaign. We congratulate the Democrats of Nicholas County on this step to unite their forces for the common interest and welfare of their party."

Smoot, Mitchell and Coy were leaders for Bert Combs and Wade Wyatt during the Primary election campaign. Smoot has been in the service station business the past eight years and has served on the Carlisle City council. Mitchell and Coy both are farmers. Dunn, Ring and Snapp were leaders for Waterfield forces during the Primary election campaign.

Wills, Gillispie, Herrin, Delaney and Stone were leaders for Combs and Wyatt during the Primary election campaign.

Commenting on the merger of Democratic leaders in behalf of the party ticket headed by Combs, nominee for governor, and Wyatt, nominee for lieutenant governor, Smoot said:

"It was the wise and proper course, not only for our party's sake but for the benefit of Nicholas County. In this way, can achieve much for our county and its people.

"Kentucky, if it is to continue to make progress, must have leaders of broad knowledge and extensive experience.

"Democratic party offers such leaders in Bert Combs, Wilson Wyatt and the other candidates on the State ticket.

"We in Nicholas County are helping ourselves and our State when we unite to elect a governor, lieutenant governor and other state officials of such proven ability."

Annexation move upheld

An ordinance annexing about 50 acres to the City of Carlisle was upheld in a judgment handed down by Circuit Judge A. H. Barker of Cynthiana in Nicholas Circuit Court Monday.

The land embraces the site of the new Giffin Manufacturing Company plant and is located on the western side of town. Part of the land also will be used for residences.

The grand jury was empaneled by Judge Barker after court convened Monday, and later in the day the jury returned eight indictments. Names of persons indicted were withheld from publication pending their arrest.

The petit jury will meet Friday when the trials of Melvin Gray and Kenneth Thornberry, charge with failure to support children, are scheduled.
