AGAIN, THE EASTER MESSAGE

Endicott accepts KFOS position; Presbytery is in session here

Thursday, April 13, 1960
Hubbard M. Endicott, an associate pastor of the First Presbyterian Church here, has resigned as Deputy County Clerk to accept a position as financial secretary of the Kentucky Female Orphan School at Middlesboro.

Approximately 150 persons attended the annual "open house" conducted by the local OOO camp Sunday afternoon.

Work has started on the re-erecting of the tower which was damaged by fire two days ago.

DAWN—To Mr. and Mrs. Hagar Whit, of near Myers, Kentucky, on April 5.

MAKED—Mrs. Stella Amberg of Salt Lick and John Meadows, of Morehead, by Judge D. M. Curry on April 5.

DEED—Jacob Lindsay Blake, 60, Wednesday morning—For rest Lawrence G. Nicholas son live at his home in Paris last night.

As Mad as a Hat. A farm employe got the end of a bad bargain and came out the little end of the Commemorative series in the week-end.

BE MODERN... SWITCH TO AN ELECTRIC WATER HEATER

Old-fashioned things are funny sometimes

...but there's nothing funny about an old-fashioned water heater

BE MODERN... SWITCH TO AN ELECTRIC WATER HEATER

No, there's nothing funny about old-fashioned water heaters that keep you worrying—whether you get a little or a lot—whether the water will be hot or not. There's nothing funny about them.

How warm the water, how long, modern electric water heaters that you'll get it hot and get it fast.
