Play costumes furnished by several Nicholas Countains

Nicholas Countians are playing the leading role in casting the cast of the Nicholas County high school senior play "One Foot in Heaven" to be presented Thursday and Friday evenings, May 5 and 6. The play, a 3-act comedy, is a period play with the costumes and stage setting of days long ago, so attics and trunks are being turned inside out in the search for high-top shoes, Gibson-girl blouses or short-waisted, dainty parasols, fans, ostrich feather hats and parasols, cuimpes, basques, capes, elegant taffetas and brocades, and of course the necessary many flounced petticoats

The well-dressed man of those days was, indeed, well dressed so attics are turning out derbies, straw hats, Katies, top-hats, trousers with narrow legs, "Prince Alberts", spats and canes

Many memories and much reminiscing is evoked by the revival of these articles. A cast and hat belonging to M. I. B. Ross will be used. "It was his wedding coat 63 years ago." said Mrs. Ross.

Mrs. G. N. Maxey has provided lovely costumes belonging to her mother, Mrs. James M. Herndon and Mrs. H. E. Porter, beautifully hand and brocaded capes were those of her aunt, Betty Herndon of Nicholas County, who became the bride of Dr. G. R. Logan and went to Carter County to live

"If only Aunt Elizabeth could read what this or know that her clothes were being used, how pleased she would be" commented Mrs. Fithian Rye "Miss Lizzie" Conway Elizabeth Sanford, was born in Nicholas County in the 1860's near Hookdown and lived in the big brick house on the Paris Pike until her death. Among the lovely clothes that belonged to her is a soft green-sprigged silk crepe lace-trimmed lawn jabot and an exquisitely embroidered white dress that "Miss Elizabeth" wore when a young girl

Aunt Fannie Soper was a belle" said Mrs G C Grover "She was born in 1865, the year Lincoln died. When a beautiful young girl. I envy some of the clothes she wore to many events including the fairs where she ran in fancy turnouts, carrying a pretty parasol, and won pretty girl contests. Grandfather was so proud of his daughters that he went all out to provide them elegant costumes. They lived at Moorefield and went to church every time the church bells rang. The
