Buyer... vs. Seller

Most of us lead a double life. Buyer... vs. Seller

One minute we're a BUYER. The next minute we're a SELLER... of goods, services, time, or talent.

Of course, there's some incompatibility in a Buyer-Seller combination. About the only way you'd expect to find a dog-eat-dog culture.

Consequently, we sometimes get to playing our part as Mr. Buyer with such enthusiasm we forget that our other self, Mr. Seller, has to just dollars in our pocket before our Mr. Buyer self can spend them out of it.

And every time we, as Mr. Buyer, take one of those dollars out of circulation here by spending it out of town, we shrink Mr. Seller's margin so it's a little harder for him to get us some more dollars.

If it's too bad we don't get more tomorrow out of our two personalities. When Mr. Buyer is cutting Mr. Seller's throat, we need to recall that they are both using the same throat.

I recall the time when I was in the late Mr. Marvin McChesney. He was superintendent of the Louisville Police and lived in Carlisle. He was a first class officer of the Louisville Police and he was really appreciated by his men. I think of him as all the same of Driscoll's.
