Letters to the Editor
 To the Editor: As members of the Chamber of Commerce we take this opportunity to publicly thank those responsible for making our Christmas Parade for 1966 such a tremendous success. First, to Don Trivette, special congratulations on the fine job of planning and securing cooperation from so many organizations. For a community of our size to have such representation in the parade is a credit to the people's generosity. Second, to all those people who worked long and hard to make each foot entry an outstanding display of the True Spirit of Christmas. They should be very proud of their efforts. Third, to the people who...
