Rev. I. S. Pineur appointed minister Methodist Church

The Kentucky Conference which met in Lexington last week appointed Rev. I. S. Pineur as Minister of the Carlisle Methodist Church. The Rev. Gwinn H. Bierly was appointed Minister of the Covington Trinity Methodist Church, the Church formerly served by the Rev. Pineur. The Rev. Pineur at one time served the Headquarters Methodist Church and is well known to many Methodists in this area.

Rev. Bierly had served the Carlisle Methodist Church for the past four years and during his ministry many members were added, a new parsonage was built and the debt on the new educational building was greatly reduced.

The Rev. Eugene Cooper was re-appointed to the Saltwell-Rose Hill Charge and the Rev. Randall Hill was re-appointed to the Headquarters-Moorefield Charge. The Rev. Julius Hammonds was appointed to the Sharpsburg-Bethel Churches and the Rev. Phillip Ott was returned to the Cassidy-Bartersville Churches. Ishmael Church will be served by the Rev. H. N. Oldaker.

Rev. Howard Whitaker, former pastor of the Danville Methodist Church was assigned to the Maysville District as District Superintendent and Rev. John Worthington was changed from the Maysville District as Superintendent to the Covington District as Superintendent of this District. The Rev. Ralph G. Wesley, brother of Raymond J. Wesley, and former pastor of the Somerset Methodist Church was named District Superintendent of the Danville District.

Thousands witness 12th Berry festival

A heavy rain delayed but did not cancel the opening night of the 12th annual Nicholas County Blackberry Festival and Homecoming.

A crowd estimated at 3,000 persons lined Main street at 8:30 p.m. when the parade finally got under way with only four floats, two or three others having been damaged by the downpour and forced to drop out of the line of march.

The Miranda Homemakers Club's float, with the theme 'What A Price For Freedom,' won first prize of $50. Second prize of $15 went to the Production Credit Administration float 'Little Red Riding Hood.' The fourth float that made the parade was 'Our Boys Came Home' sponsored by the VFW Auxiliary.

Judges of the floats were Miss A. B. Plummer, Millersburg, Edward Frederick, Ewing, and Lewis P. Scott, Earlington, Mich.

Also in the parade were the nine girls chosen from their respective districts in the county, who were judged Friday night for queen of the 1960 festival. All are high school students or this year's graduates of high schools.

Miss Craig Crowned Festival Queen

Threatening rain clouds moved on and left a clear sky Friday night as the 12th annual Blackberry Festival queen was crowned before more than 2,500 spectators.

Miss Sherrill Craig, daughter of Mr and Mrs. Vernon Craig of Blue Licks, received her cars from former Gov. A. B. 'Chandler' Miss Judy Clark Griffin, last year's reigning queen, gave up the crown to Miss Craig.

Miss Craig, who will be a junior at Nicholas County high school next fall reigned over the remaining three days of the Nicholas County Blackberry Festival and Homecoming. She was selected from nine young girls vieing for the title.

The other contestants in the queen contest served as attendants to the queen during the festival.

They were Joyce Caswell, Lower Jacktown; Sue Faulconer, Saltwell; Charlotte Moore, East Carlisle; Joyce Price, Stony Creek; June Smith, Upper Jacktown; Betty Woods, Moorefield Road; Brenda Flora, Bald Hill and Linda Power, West Carlisle.

Festival Ends With Fireworks Display

Sen. John Sherman Cooper, who was scheduled to speak Saturday night, was unable to attend "due to the rush close of business of the day" in Washington, D. C. The senator expressed his regret in a telegram to John D. Power, commander of the Nicholas County American Legion Post, sponsors of the 12th annual festival.

Activities Monday included presentation of prizes, street dancing and fireworks display.

The final event of the program was the fireworks display at 9 p.m.

The American Legion Auxiliary held Poppy Day Sales all day Monday.
