Rev. Lovett accepts call

Rev. Ashley Lovett of Verona, Mo., has accepted a call to become pastor of the First Christian Church (Disciples of Christ), and will begin his duties with the church here on Sept. 1.

Mr. Lovett is a native of Oklahoma and is a graduate of the Magnum, Okla., high school. He also is a graduate of Drury College.

He was in the furniture business in Magnum with his father for 19 years except for more than two years during World War II when he served with Navy Seabees.

He began preaching in 1954 as a lay preacher for the First Christian Church at Mountain View, Okla. After completion of a three-year reading course required by the brotherhood, he was ordained as a minister at his home church in Magnum in 1956. He and his wife then entered Drury College and both received A.B. degrees last spring.

He served churches at Hartville, Mo. and Norwood, Mo. on half-time basis for each for one year and then accepted the pastorate of the Christian Church at Verona, where he has since served.

Mr. Lovett will enter the College of the Bible, Lexington, in September to work on advanced degrees.

Mrs. Lovett has been employed as a teacher in the Headquarters school of Nicholas County and will begin her duties when schools open this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Lovett have two daughters, Lee Ann 13, and Pamela 11.

The church has purchased the residence of Irma Ockerman on Locust street, and will be given possession Sept 1. It will be used for services and the minister and family will occupy an apartment in the home.

Dr. Richard M. Poe, professor of religious history at the College of the Bible has been serving as interim pastor of the church since it was organized May 8. The church has held services at the Concord Christian Church since its organization.

Nearly half a million dollars spent by school board and Nicholas County

In keeping with the requirements of Kentucky Revised Statutes Chapter 424.220 and KRS 424.120, Carlisle Board of Education Treasurer, Miss Nancy E. Talbert, has caused to be published in this issue of The Carlisle Mercury on page 8, the financial statement showing disbursements of more than $91,000.

KRS 424.220 was amended at the behest of the Kentucky Press Association by the 1960 General Assembly to permit dumping the totals of amounts paid to each person instead of publishing that "Richard Roe received $500 a month 9 times, only one entry need be printed, Richard Roe $4500." This rather minor item will save a tremendous amount of tax dollars and still permit an accurate accounting of expenditures.

On page 4 the financial statement of Nicholas County Treasurer, Mrs. Ruth Lambert is begun. County funds disbursed are in excess of $295,000. Itemized expenditures of the general fund, road and bridge fund, Mathers Educational fund and Nicholas County hospital funds will be published in subsequent issues of The Mercury
