Stock yards destroyed by fire; Wool dealers paying 45 cents

Thursday, June 20, 1940

Fire of unknown origin about 9 o'clock Sunday night completely destroyed the Farmers Stock Yards on Market street and caused considerable damage to the brick building adjoining.

The city street department is rebuilding the north end of Eastern avenue and extension.

One of the hardest storms in several months fell here Tuesday night and for a time everything flowing of Brushy Fork was feared. However, no damage was reported.

Helen Keene Veach, student in the Carlisle high school, was awarded a blue ribbon on a dress made as part of her 4-H Club sewing project at Junior Week at the University of Kentucky last week.

Practically all of the tobacco crop in Nicholas County has been set out, farmers say.

Mrs. Russell Barr suffered painful burns on her arm when she attempted to remove artichs from her home which was destroyed by fire Wednesday of last week.

Roger Womack, secretary of the Central Kentucky Foxhunters Association, announces the annual meeting of that organization will be held at Flemingsburg October 14-17.

A LITTLE YAPPIN'

by Nellie Crump

Broken Arm for Judy.

Mr. and Mrs. William "Tink" Morris of Race street were relieved word that Judy Purvis, their little granddaughter, was very painfully injured when hit by a truck a short distance from her home in Marion, Ind. She was hospitalized 24 hours with a broken arm and severe bruises. The child is the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Purvis, the former Dora B. Morris, of Carlisle.

Party for Miss Nichols.

About a dozen, perhaps only a few more youngsters were entertained Saturday afternoon in observance of the eleventh birthday of Miss Sandra Nicholds of Dorsey avenue. A picture show party to see "Sleeping Beauty", and bags of popcorn were enjoyed at the Lyric, hats and horns were given as favors and delicious refreshments of home-made ice cream and birthday cake served. Sandra's mother was assisted by Mrs. Pauline Bussell and Mrs. Barbara Woodward.

With the Sick.

Mrs. Early Lawrence, who has been ill for some time, was in the hospital for special treatment several days the past week.

"Uncle Frank" Howard's condition remains unchanged after several weeks' illness.

Miss Nellie Crump is able to be out after ten days' illness.

Daddy Gets the Credit.

A child's frantic screams sent the quiet of late afternoon as I sat in the porch swing. Quickly as possible I got to the rear of the house and saw little Henry Marshall in the arms of his parents next door and a bunch of wide-eyed children looking on with open mouths. He couldn't be dead for no dead human ever screamed like manner. It is no small matter for a fellow's finger to get caught in a concrete mixer, not even the one next to the little one of the left hand. Next day Henry brought it over (the finger, not the mixer) to see if I thought it would "grow back on." Mommy said it would. I felt sure it would soon be as good as new. Assuring him that God had been with him, he said, "But Mommy, it was Daddy that was mostly with me."

THURSDAY, JUNE 23

Read II Corinthians 6: 14-18

Come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you, and will be a Father unto you. II Corinthians 6: 17, 18.)

John Bunyan tells us in The Pilgrim's Progress that Christian and Faithful, while on their way to the Celestial City, had to pass through Vanity Fair. Because they were different they met opposition, at first amused but later angry. They saw nothing they wished to buy in the city or Vanity Fair. When asked what they would buy they looked gravely at the questioner and said, "We buy the truth."

The world through which we pass is in some aspects another Vanity Fair." If we are Christians, we must remain free from the allurements to do evil.

So much of our failure as Christians is due more to low aim than to the effect of evil upon us. We resist what is evil, but are inclined at the same time to conform to worldly standards.

Separation from the world means laying aside "weights" as well as avoiding sins.

PRAYER: Lord God, we seek Thee because of Thy purity and power. Fill us with lofty desires that we may seek first Thy kingdom and righteousness and so set no store on other things which have no permanent satisfaction for us. We ask this in the Saviour's name. Amen.

ANSWERS TO YOUR TAX QUESTIONS

BY WILLIAM E. SCENT

KENTUCKY'S COMMISSIONER OF REVENUE

This is the second of a series of columns seeking to acquaint the readers of this paper with the tax structure effective July 1 in Kentucky.

Q. Are sales of feed to farmers subject to the sales tax?

A. His purchase of feed is not subject to the tax if it is used for production of food for humans, or if his product is sold in the regular course of business

Q. How will a feed store merchant determine whether the sale is exempt from the tax?

A. The farmer, when he purchases exempt items, will "execute" an Agricultural exemption certificate. This gives the merchant a record showing that no tax is due on the sale.

Q. If a farmer buys a tractor and trades in his old one, will he pay the tax on the full purchase price of the new tractor?

A. No. The tax will apply only to the cash difference. For instance, if a farmer buys a $3,000 tractor and receives $1,500 allowance for his old tractor, the tax would apply on the $1,500 difference or would amount to $45.

Q. If a farmer buys farm stock, is the sale subject to the tax?

A. No.

Q. If he buys livestock for breeding is it subject to the tax?

A. No.

Q. If he buys livestock for dairy purposes, is it subject to the tax?

A. No.

Q. If he buys poultry for breeding or producing eggs, does the tax apply?

A. No.

Q. If a farmer has bad luck with his tobacco plant beds and purchases plants from his neighbor will the neighbor collect the tax?

A. No. The specifically exempt "occasional" sales.

Q. If a farmer purchases feed for his dog, will he pay the tax?

A. Yes.

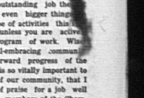
Telephone Talk

by CHARLES A. HARRIS
Your Telephone Manager



YOUR CHAMBER OF COMMERCE—This is the space ace, there's no doubt about it. Everybody is talking about Atomic Energy Radiology and Nuclear Power. This is fine and we are proud to be living in the twentieth century. We at the Telephone Company are doing everything possible to keep up with, and even move ahead in the new advancements and progress being made daily. But I'd like to come down to earth for a moment, with my feet solidly on the ground, and talk about another important subject a little closer to home—YOUR CARLISLE-NICHOLAS COUNTY CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

This fine group of local business and professional men and women have done an outstanding job the past year and all indications point to even a bigger things in 1960. It's hard to realize the scope of activities this non-profit organization carries out, unless you are actively participating in its extensive program of work. The men than I have defined this all-embracing community development effort, but the forward progress of the Chamber of Commerce program is so vitally important to the future growth and welfare of our community, that I would like to add a few words of praise for a job well done. Each and every one of you, members of the Chamber, Officers, Directors, Committees and Staff, are to be commended for your splendid cooperation and support in the past, and your sincere willingness to continue these efforts in the future. WE, AT THE TELEPHONE COMPANY—are proud to be a part of the Chamber of Commerce. We believe it is more than our civic responsibility. It can be shown that there is a definite dollars-and-cents value in having a community whose services, facilities and social relationships are sound and healthy.

The past three years has seen The Carlisle-Nicholas County Chamber Of Commerce make great strides. Last year under the leadership of Ted Isaks and this year with C. H. Rain at the helm.
