CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

Man's age-old longing for a clearer understanding of God and of his own identity is central theme of the Lesson-Sermon to be read at Christian Science services Sunday.

Scriptural selections in the Lesson-Sermon on the subject "Soul and Body" will include the following from Isaiah (55: 6): "Seek ye the Lord while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near."

One of the correlative citations to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy states in part (428: 8): "To divest thought of false traits and material evidences in order that the spiritual facts of being may appear,—this is the great attainment by means of which we shall sweep away the false and give place to the true. Thus we may establish in truth the temple, or body, 'whose builder and maker is God.'"

The Golden Text is from Psalms (84: 2): "My soul longeth, yea, even fainteth for the courts of the Lord: my heart and my flesh crieth out for the living God."

Thornton-Hamilton Vows Spoken

The marriage of Miss Lucy Caroline Thornton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Laws Thornton of Versailles, and James West Hamilton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Harrison Hamilton of Lexington, was solemnized at 7:30 o'clock Saturday night at the Versailles Methodist Church.

The Rev. Marvin P. McClure, assisted by the Rev. Donald R. Herren, performed the ceremony. The church was decorated with white flowers against a background of viburnum foliage and lighted by tapers in candelabra. Organ and vocal music was presented.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of petal white peau taffeta and lace. The fitted long-sleeved bodice of lace had a sabrina neckline edged with seed pearls. The skirt was designed in the back with floating panels which extended into a chapel train. Her fingertip veil was held by tiara of lace that was worn by the bride's mother. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Doris Jacobs of Cumberland was the maid of honor and Miss Evelyn Bridgforth of Versailles was bridesmaid. They wore gowns of two-toned celestial blue organza fashioned with draped fitted bodices and full skirts. They wore bow clip head-dresses with circular veils and carried arm bouquets of spring flowers.

Sally Kitchen, the flower girl, wore a white dress with a blue sash and headband and carried a basket of rose petals. Christopher Kelly was the ring bearer.

Mr. Hamilton served his son as best man. The guests were seated by David L. Thornton III, Versailles; William Dickens, Hanover, Ind.; Charles Harper and George Shelburne, both of Lexington.

A small reception was held at the home of the bride's parents for the families and close friends.

After a wedding trip South, the couple will live in Lexington.

Mrs. Hamilton is a graduate of Margaret Hall School and attended the University of Mississippi. She is a 1959 graduate of the University of Kentucky where she was a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. Wesley Foundation, Sally and Alma Magna Mater.

Mr. Hamilton, a graduate of Lafayette high school, was graduated in February from the University of Kentucky. He is employed in the State Department of Highways.

Mr. Hamilton is a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Hamilton of North street.

Dorsey-Fussell Vows Spoken In Virginia

Miss Mary Marguerite Dorsey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Arnold Dorsey of Richmond, Va., was married at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church to Ray Emerson Fussell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Holmes Fussell of Richmond.

Mrs. Dorsey is the former Miss Nancy Jett of Danville and Mr. Dorsey's home was in Carlisle.

The bride wore a gown of white Chantilly lace over taffeta with a sabrina neckline and long sleeves. The full scalloped skirt ended in a circular train. Her fingertip veil of illusion was held by a coronet of pearls and orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

Miss Lucy Covington Dorsey, the maid of honor, wore a dress of pink silk organza and carried a cascade of pink carnations and rosebuds.

Bridesmaids were Miss Carol Diane Fussell, sister of the groom; Miss Rose Carolyn Hynes, cousin of the bride; Miss Jean Ann Martin and Miss Evelyn Baylor Blackford.

Donald Lee Fussell, brother of the groom, was the best man. Ushers were Albert Nelson Justice, Carl Kerney Paul, Clifford O'Brien and Herbert Wyndam.

After a wedding trip South, the couple will live at 924 Hamilton street, Richmond.

The bride is a graduate of Westhampton College and the University of Richmond where she was a member of Beta Beta Beta honor fraternity.

The groom attends the University of Richmond School of Business Administration and is a member of the Richmond Blues.

Educational tour for sixth grader

On Friday morning, May 13, the Sixth Grade of the Carlisle city school and teacher, Mrs. Lucille Fannie Ruth Southard, cosets for a guided tour of the I.B.M. Plant at Lexington, Kentucky. The children were privileged to see the complete assembling of the electric typewriter. Fascinating to the children was a conveyor belt which carried the boxed typewriters to their respective shipping area. This entire operation was guided by electronic "eyes."

The plant covers 284 acres and employs 1200 people.

At the close of the I.B.M. tour, each child was treated to a milk shake in the plant cafeteria. At noon a picnic lunch was enjoyed in the recreational area of the plant.

At 1:30 the class had another guided tour as guests of the Lexington Signal Depot. The group was taken by bus to various points of interest in this huge plant. At each warehouse or department a special guide explained the department and then showed the group around his area.

Both places visited showed the greatest of hospitality and seemed glad to welcome the children.

Enjoying the tours also were following teachers who furnished transportation for the class: Mrs. Paul Stone, Mrs. Foster Pumphrey, Mrs. W. B. Hamilton, Mrs. William Sams, Mrs. Charles Cox, Mrs. W. B. Boothe and Mrs. Roger Curtis.

This Was THE FAITH OF OUR FATHERS

Choosing the right religion is a difficult and confusing problem.

And millions of people, while professing belief in God, choose no church at all.

This "neutral" attitude is not, however, a good answer to the question for any person who wants to be honest with himself. If you are among these uncertain ones, it is not a good solution for you when you stop to consider that the eternal destiny of your soul may depend upon your choice. And for anyone raising a family, the decision is a matter of special concern.

If you should decide to seek the true religion for you, you will ask yourself this one question: "Why am I not a Catholic?"

First of all, the answer to this question will reveal, almost certainly, that your ancestors were Catholics—that your forefathers worshiped in the historic Church just as your Catholic friends and neighbors all around you are still worshiping today.

It may be difficult for you to trace your "family tree" back far enough to discover when or why your forebears ceased to follow the historic Faith. It may have been in eras of oppression, when imprisonment, confiscation of property and even death were among the penalties for holding true to the Faith. Possibly it happened during the sixteenth-century revolt against the Church. Or it might have been due to a marriage outside the Church, to a lack of religious interest, or even to some disagreement which you would instantly recognize as trivial.

Perhaps your answer to all this will be that you don't care what your ancestors were that you can choose your own religion, or do without one. But will that answer stand the test of your own common sense? We know that Christ did establish a Church to teach all men, and all men — including you. We know that He commanded us to "hear the Church." We know that He promised His Church would endure to the end of time. And we know that the Catholic Church is that same Church existing through the centuries since the days of the Apostles.

A highly interesting pamphlet which will help you to see the imperative need for religion in your personal and family life — and help you to decide whether to reject or follow the Catholic Faith —"The Faith of our Fathers—will be sent you free in a plain wrapper. And nobody will call on you. Write today for Pamphlet No. KC-35.

Parks 4-H club

by Linda Boots

The Parks Busy Bee 4-H Club held it's first meeting May 11. The meeting was called to order by the president, Garry Ritchie. The song leaders lead us in singing "Old MacDonald". Then the secretary, Janie Henry, read the minutes and called the roll. We answered by saying the names of our projects. The president then turned the meeting over to Mr. Luther Whitaker. He talked to us about our projects. We elected captains of each project to see that our project books were all turned in. Mr. Whitaker showed us some slides of 4-H camp. We saw a movie about bees. It was an enjoyable meeting.

Moorefield 4-H Club

The Moorefield Teenage 4-H club met May 9, at the Moorefield school. The meeting was called to order by our president, Sue Irvin.
