STATE LOSES HOUSE SEAT
Kentucky will lose one representative in the lower House of Congress as a result of the 1960 census. Although the state had a population increase of around 70,000 this rate of increase was too small to off set the gains made by states which picked up one or more seats.
As a result of the loss of one representative the state will have to be redistricted by the state legislature prior to the 1962 elections. If this is not done, all candidates for the remaining seven congressional seats will have to run at large in statewide elections.
All Kentuckians will watch with interest their state's progress in the "soaring sixties" and hope that our next revision of districts will be upward; and that we will join that group of states on the gaining side.

C of C announces meeting Nov. 18

Highway Safety program given

The Southern Bell Telephone Company sponsored a very dramatic program on "HIGHWAY SAFETY AND YOU" at the Nicholas County High School last Thursday.
Mr. W. Mitchell, District Manager from Frankfort, and Chairman of Citizens' Traffic Safety Committee of Kentucky, was in charge of the program. He was assisted by Charles Harris Group Manager and Dave Burch, Public Relations Supervisor.
Mr. Mitchell opened with the remarks that what he had to sell was faith in the young men and women in Kentucky. It is through educating the young people to be good drivers that accidents on the highways can be reduced.
"I do not approve of scratching off," said Mr. Mitchell. By scratching off a driver just gets a lot of older people to criticizing and it is also hard on tires and transmissions. It takes a mature person to drive a car. Maturity is not measured in years. It is measured by intelligence and the way one conducts himself.
A film strip "Seven Tenths of a Second" was shown. It illustrated what happened when a car going 30 miles per hour hit a tree. The car was completely demolished and the driver fatally injured. A failure to yield the right of way is the cause for 50% of accidents.
Mr Mitchell cautioned the high school students to examine their friends. Ask them questions. Are they "big shots" behind the wheel? Are they "show offs"? Are they conscious behind the wheel? Are they mature? The program closed with this advice learn to drive properly and be a courteous mature driver helping others yourself to stop accidents on the highway

180 exhibits in Tobacco Festival

The 6th Annual Nicholas County Tobacco Festival, held Friday, November 11, at Carlisle Armory had one hundred and eighty exhibits of tobacco, S. R. Barlow, Chairman said. This year's exhibit was four times as large as last year's. $330.00 in prizes were awarded for the Burley crops and gate prizes. The tobacco show was sponsored jointly by the Carlisle-Nicholas County Chamber of Commerce, Junior Chamber of Commerce, Farm Bureau, Utopia Club and representatives of neighboring tobacco warehouse companies. The show tobacco was judged by Russell A. Hunt, Tobacco Specialist, University of Kentucky and Holly G. Royalty, Federal Tobacco Grading Service.
The tobacco judges, Mr. Hunt and Mr. Royalty, stated that the tobacco crop was above normal in the Nicholas Show than any of the others that they had judged. Both judges stated that if the tobacco exhibited in the show was representative of Nicholas County's tobacco crop this year that the average crop will be one in very much demand by buyers. The crop appears to be not a high quality crop, but one that will be very usable and definitely a smoker quality.
Chairman Barlow wishes to express the appreciation of the Tobacco Festival Committee to the organizations that sponsored the tobacco festival and to all individuals who participated in any way in making the event the most successful of any tobacco festival held here. He especially wants to thank the merchants of Carlisle who contributed the door prizes and representatives of neighboring warehouses who provided the crop prizes.
Champion crop exhibited, $25.00 award, purple rosette ribbon winner and awarded the cup given by the Carlisle-Nicholas County Chamber of Commerce—George House.

Rotary Club will hold Farmers night program
The Carlisle Rotary Club will hold their annual Farmers night meeting on Thursday night, November 17, at 6:30 P.M. at the Masonic Hall, Joe Conley, Rotary Club president has announced. The Farmers night program is being arranged by Joe Crouch and Albert Booth and is being sponsored in recognition of National Farm City Week.
Personal invitation is being arranged by Rotarians to invite many of the sheep producers of Nicholas County to attend this meeting. R. C. Millers, Sheep Specialist, University of Kentucky has been engaged to talk to the sheep growers on the problems of parasite control in sheep. This problem has been causing great distress a-mong the sheep growers for the past two or three years.

Carlisle P.T.A. meets Nov. 21

During a short business session preceding the program a report on the proceeds from the Halloween Carnival will be given by the treasurer, Mrs. William Parker. A devotional will be given by Mrs. James Simons.
The girls of the 4-H and F.H.A. organizations will be present to take pictures of school and elementary age children so their parents will be free to attend the program
