HARVEST FESTIVALS have been celebrated by many nations down through history. In the Pilgrims' after much hardship in a new land, to give a special day of Thanksgiving. Today, this is probably our second most honored holiday.

A day of family gatherings, cranberry sauce and usual, by too much turkey. To a country that family is a day of fun and one, which true to our tradition, is observed by gathering the clan together and diving in to that over-joyous food. All of us at Southern Bell hope you have a wonderful Thanksgiving Day and — Happy Eating!

If you please your family gathering, remember to let your telephone work for you. Handle all those last minute details by phone—it's so much easier.

AND, if your youngsters can't come home for Thanksgiving, why not call them and say hello over the holidays.

Long-distance rates are low with extra bargains after 6 PM and on Saturdays. Write to help in touch by telephone.

YOU'LL ENJOY "The Thread of Life", newest TV program in the Bell Telephone Hour Science Series, Friday night, December 9, over NBC-TV. If you're interested in the mystery of heredity, how we inherit our personalities, the characteristics of our parents, our chances of having an exact double, how many new babies will be boys or girls, and lots of other fascinating facts about the science of genetics, put a big red circle around December 9 on your calendar and check your newspaper for time and channel.
