"Patching a leaky roof"

This newspaper wonders if those people who suggest that we can bring our 1890 state Constitution in to the 20th Century by patching it like the leaky roof really take care of their own houses that way.

Their theme song seems to be "patch the roof, don't tear down that old house that served Pappy so well." Actually, the suggested Call for a Limited Constitutional Convention is a house repair job. The heart of our constitution is as sound as the firm foundation of any house well built. It's the shutters, the eaves, the leaky roof, and a few other things that need tending to if we're to make progress in the 1960's and 70's as much as the writers of our third constitution did in the 1890's.

Now, Pappy wasn't nearly as sentimental as those who say "what was good enough for him is good enough for us". When his Constitution needed tuckpointing and a touch of paint and new front porch, he provided it. Changes are, and their own statements prove the point, the men who drafted our 1890 Constitution would consider as quite stupid to be sentimental when Kentucky's needs call for careful but nuitiple revisions.

Those singers of the sad song that what was good enough back in the 19th century is good enough today, tell us to use the accepted form of amendment to make needed changes. But the accepted form means no more than two amendments every other year. The voters reject far more than they approve and as a result, only 18 amendments have been passed in 69 years. That's at a rate of four to five years per amendment.

The two legislatures have said limited revision is a good idea and let the voters take it from here. They spelled out twelve areas of needed revision. In some of these, to really patch the leaks and fix the shutters we would need six or ten maybe twenty of the old fashioned amendments. Let us assume, however, that only one was needed per area under consideration; a total of twelve did in the 1890's.

At the present rate of approving amendments, those twelve would take us well into the next century, still trying to make last century's constitution serve the needs of this century.

That's why the editor of this paper thinks it is time for serious study, not sentiment, is one of many reasons why we think our readers should vote "YES" for a limited Constitutional Convention when they vote November 8th.

A LITTLE YAPPIN'

by Nellie Crump

Local Young Man Wins.

Many friends, relatives and old schoolmates here are happy to learn that Carlos Bromagen has just completed training at Dr. Scholl's School in Cincinnati and has been placed in charge of the Warner Arcade Shoe Store in Price Hill. He is one of our home boys, a 1937 graduate of Nicholas County High School and a most deserving young man. In addition to his classes, he wrote a weekly column of school news for The Mercury and presented it in a very acceptable manner, interesting, well-written and always on time. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Waldon Bromagen, of Carlisle, R-3, Ky.

—Yep—

Wanted—One Blow Torch.

When it is necessary to wait hours in a doctor's office one sees and hears a bit of everything. Mrs. Lena Williams told me of a peculiar happining she witnessed in Lexington recently. Frantic parents rushed in with a little child—boy or girl, I dunno—but its hand was fastened tight in a tin can. Doctors are supposed to know what to do in every situation. This one knew just how and what to do anyway. But beware of empty tin cans.

—Yep—

Revival to Continue.

The Rev. Paul Mattox and family, evangelists, who have been holding a tent revival in Carlisle for about three months, have packed away the big brown tent for this season, but their good work goes on. The building known as the Continental Warehouse at the corner of East Main street and the East Union road has been rented for services through the winter. The building has been unoccupied for several years and is just the place to accommodate the large crowds that attend nightly services.

Yeps—all . . .

The Whipper Room

THE WORLD'S MOST WIDELY USED DEVOTIONAL GUIDE

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 6

Read John 10: 11-18

That they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us. (John 17: 21.)

On a Y.M.C.A. building once saw the inscription of John 17: 21: "That they all may be one." Through its attitude and what it does, the Y.M.C.A. seeks to give meaning to universal brotherhood in Jesus Christ.

Our unity is in Christ, our Shepherd. The fold is one, although there is a diversity of sheep. The pasture which nourishes these sheep is the Word of God.

To belong to one single flock and to follow one Shepherd is to conquer geography and enlist individual differences. It is the creating of a Christian brotherhood through our oneness in Christ.

Christian brotherhood transcends all barriers. It does not know groups, races, levels of society, nationalities, or denominations. In the diversity of ideas, traditions, and experiences, love bridges the differences and develops united participation and brotherhood.

PRAYER. Our Father, through the inspiration of Thy spirit, we pray for the reality of Christ's love in our lives. We pray there may be no contradiction between our saying and our doing. Show us the Shepherd, Jesus Christ, in whom and through whom, in the unity of faith, we join our hearts in prayer. Amen.

WHAT IS A NEWSPAPER?

There are times when what looks like a newspaper may not qualify as such for legal purposes. In many places there are what are known as "shoppers" or "throwaways". They contain more or less news, they serve a purpose, but their primary purpose is advertising.

Such publications are useful and many of them have been in existence for years. Some of them make a fine appearance. But it is significant that they cannot qualify for second class entry under the postal laws. This is because they do not come within the definition of a bona fide newspaper under the regulations.

Then again there are special interest newspapers which, within their limits, also serve useful purposes. These may be fraternal or religious in nature or may have to do with specific trade, business, industry, or profession.

But in the very great majority of cases the thousands of state laws governing public notices, or legal advertising, specify the use of bona fide newspapers of paid general circulation in the community for such purposes. This is because such newspapers give maximum coverage, circulation throughout the community, their main purpose is to publish editorial and news matter, and their paid circulations are undeniable proof of their merit, their influence, and their being wanted in their community.

Kentucky statutes provide that every newspaper, to publish legal advertising, must have a second class mail permit, a paid circulation, and be circulated generally in its trade area.

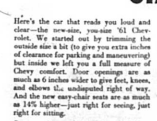
FRIDAY! THE GREATEST SIXTY-ONEDERFUL CHEVROLET

Here's the car that reads you loud and clear—the new-size, you-size '61 Chevrolet. We started out by trimming the outside size a bit (to give you extra inches of clearance for parking and maneuvering) but inside we left you a full measure of Chevy comfort. Door openings are as much as 6 inches wider to give feet, knees, and elbows U.. undisputed right of way. And the new easy-chair seats are as much as 14% higher—just right for seeing, just right for sitting.

Once you've settled inside you'll have high and wide praises for Chevrolet's spacious new dimensions (in the Sport Coupes, for example, head room has been upped as much as 2 inches, and there's more leg room, too—front and rear). Chevy's new trunk is something else that will please you hugely—what with its deep-well shape and bumper-level loading it holds things you've never been able to get in a trunk before.

Yet, generously endowed as this car is with spaciousness and clean-etched elegance, it holds steadfastly to all the thrifty, dependable virtues Chevrolet buyers have come to take for granted. Your dealer's the man to see for all the details.



There's never been a trunk like it before! The floor's recessed more than half a foot and the loading height is as much as 10½ inches lower.

SHOW ON WORTH! CHEVROLET

NEW '61 CHEVY CORVAIR

More space . . . more spunk and wagons, too!

The newest car in America: the CORVAIR 700 LAKEWOOD 4-DOOR STATION WAGON.

CORVAIR 700 CLUB COUPE. Like all coupes and sedans, it has a longer range fuel tank.

CORVAIR 700 4-DOOR SEDAN. Provisions for hosting ducts are built right into its Body by Fisher.

Even middle-seat passengers sit pretty, thanks to Corvair's practically flat floor.

Now in production—the GREENBRIER SPORTS WAGON with up to twice as much room as the biggest (third seat optional at extra cost).

Here's the new Chevy Corvair for '61 with a complete line of complete thrift cars.

To start with, every Corvair has a budget-pleasing price tag. And Corvair goes on from there to save you even more. With extra miles per gallon . . . quicker-than-ever cold-start warmup so you start saving sooner . . . a new extra-cost optional heater that warms everyone evenly. Riding along with this extra economy: more room inside for you, more room up front for your luggage (sedans and coupes have almost 12% more usable trunk space).

And our new wagons? You'll love them—think they're the greatest thing for families since houses. The Lakewood Station Wagon does a man-sized job with cargo, up to 68 cubic feet of it. The Greenbrier Sports Wagon you're going to have to see—it gives you up to 175.5 cubic feet of space for you and your things.

Corvair's whole thrifty lineup gets its pep from a spunkier 145-cu.-in. air-cooled rear engine. Same rear-engine traction, same smooth 4-wheel independent-suspension ride. See the polished and relaxed 1961 Corvair first chance you get at your Chevrolet dealer's.
