107% of the national budget for education. The United States spends about 3% In Russia the teaching profession is highly honored and paid. That is the challenge before us and we must before has so much stress been put on education in this time of survival or catastrophe.

The Governor pointed out that it is the responsibility of the school people to support programs that will help education to go forward. Such programs include the present sales tax. He urged supporting the bond issue for roads and the Limited Constitution Convention for a more progressive Kentucky He quoted from Abraham Lincoln, "As our problems are new we must think and act anew."

Governor Combs closed with a challenge to all school people to go forward with a spirit of unity to build a greater educational program in Kentucky. Mrs. J. T. Embry, President CKEA, presided at the meeting. Dr Robert Martin, President Eastern State College greeted the 31st annual meeting. It was on the campus of Eastern 30 years ago that CKEA was organized.

Elizabeth Dennis, class room teacher from Fayette county was presented a gift of recognition for her legislative and motional work done in the spring. She was called "An ideal class room teacher."

T. K. Stone, Superintendent, Elizabethtown and NEA State Director, urged all teachers to join NEA to further their professional interest.

In the afternoon session all presidents of local associations were platform guests. Nicholas County was represented by Foster Pumphrey, local president of Nicholas County Class Room teachers and Gayle Bowen, Carlisle city school. The climax of the atmosphere-packed program was an address by Honorable Frank G. Clement, former Governor of Tennessee ember 8 ballot Womack said "Many people we've found think they will vote in November to actually change the Constitution. Nothing could be farther from the truth. The vote in November is only to approve calling a convention to study limited areas that are now restricting the development and progress of our state."

Womack named

"The people will be called on later after the November election to approve steps leading to any change. They must elect delegates at the 1962 general election, and they must vote of the polls to accept or reject the convention's recommendations," he explained.

The State Bipartisan Committee for Constitution Improvement is a nonpolitical, nonprofit organization working to bring the Constitution up to date.

"I wonder how many people in Nicholas county would be willing to trade their 1960 television set in on a new style phonograph?" Mr. Womack said.

Payments rise for second month to blind, disabled

For the second straight month, Kentucky's public assistance payments to Nicholas County's blind and disabled persons have topped the 1959 level.

August payments to the needy blind exceeded the 1959 average by $14.33, while permanently and totally disabled persons have received an average increase of 7.49 over last year's August payments.

Funds paid to the needy blind in Nicholas County averaged $54.00 in August. The permanently and totally disabled received an average payment of $50.27.

Commissioner of Economic Security Jo M. Ferguson said the increased payments are a result of funds collected through the newly-instituted sales tax. These appropriations, combined with federal matching funds, have put Kentucky in the lead over all other southeastern states in the amount of public assistance payments to indigent recipients in all categories, Ferguson stated.

N.C.H.S. news to parents

Charles Wilson, Principal

Nicholas County high school has gotten underway for another year in the development of our young citizens.

We hope that this will be the year that our students get the greatest challenge that they have ever received Many new educational devices have been purchased to help send the boy or girl further into the field of education Graduation requirements have been raised from sixteen to nineteen credits for this year's freshmen. This was done by the Department of Education in Frankfort.

Any person that represents our school must have passing grades in order to do so Cheerleaders must maintain A C average or above. Basketball players must pass all his subjects to be on the basketball squad. Various other emphasis are being placed upon our young people to make them ready for the fast changes that are ahead of them We feel that the measures are important and we want you parents to know about our school business as it concerns your children

We are having a speaker, Thursday, October 6 at 4:00 p.m. on the Constitutional Proposal that you will be voting on in November If you are interested in coming to the High School to become more informed on this subject we certainly invite you to come This is certainly a matter that needs your consideration and support

by Mike Morford

The Carlisle Musketeers were defeated Friday afternoon by the M.M.I Cadets 40-0

The kickoff was made by M.M.I to the Carlisle 40 yd line with Ratliff returning the ball seven yards. After gaining eight down Johnson made a nine yard pass to Fuller who ran 4 yds for a second first down. The Muskies failed to gain another first down and the Cadets took over on their own thirty yard line While working their way down field M.M.I gained five first downs and then Jim Chambers scored the first T.D of the afternoon for the Cadets. The extra point was made by Jim Myres. Carlisle received the kickoff on their own 45 yd line but failed to make a first down.

In the second quarter M.M.I took the ball on the 43 yd. line and gained 3 yds Jim Myres then went over the line for M.M.I's second touchdown. He also scored the P.A.T. King kicked off for M.M.I. and Carlisle received the kick on the 15 yd. line Compton ran the ball back 15 yds. to the 30 yd. line Carlisle attempted a pass and M.M.I. intercepted it on the 32 yd line Cadets ran down the clock ending the first half.

Burley entries simplified for tobacco festival

Class entries for the forthcoming Nicholas County Tobacco Festival have been made easier S. R. Baarlow, chairman, said this week. For example Barlow said, the number of hands to be included in a class has been reduced from 6 to 2. The number of leaves contained in each hand should be from 12 to 20.

It should be clearly understood, the chairman continued, that a person may enter the Tobacco Festival in one or in several of the classes. For example he may enter the class for a single grade, such as flyings or lugs, or he may exhibit hands in all of the classes. Any Nicholas County bonified grower which would include a farm owner, a tenant, or a youth producer in the 4-H or F.F.A. However, no member of the Tobacco Festival Committee may exhibit tobacco in this show.

Arrangements are being completed this week for door prizes to be given away for those in attendance at the Fourth Annual Tobacco Festival to be held at the Carlisle Armory on Friday, November 11. Announcement of the actual prizes to be given away will be announced later. Barlow said. As the 1960 crop of Burley is stripped and prepared for market, Nicholas county producers are urged to lay a few leaves aside in five grades and to tie them up and ear-mark them for the Tobacco Festival. Why not share in the $250. prizes offered this year?

Hepatitis feared near epidemic stage in Ky.

Kentucky faces its worst epidemic of infectious hepatitis in years according to the Communicable Disease Center Section. Division of Preventive Medicine, State Department of Health. Cases for 1960 have already more than doubled the 1959 record high, and the most dangerous months, November through February, are still ahead.

Infectious hepatitis or yellow jaundice is a virus disease affecting the liver and is accompanied by fever, vomiting, abdominal pains, loss of appetite, and jaundice. There were 16 known deaths in 1959 from hepatitis. School children between the ages of five and nine are most vulnerable; however, the disease is more prolonged and severe in adults, and citrosis of the liver is a possible complication.

Hepatitis is spread by inadequate sewage facilities, poor drainage, polluted water supplies and personal contact with an infected person. After exposure to the disease, 10 days to three months may be required for it to develop. In-
