CHRISTIAN SCIENCE
The practical significance for today of Christ Jesus' victory over death will be brought out at Christian Science churches Sunday in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Probation After Death."
Scriptural readings will include the following: "Now when Jesus was risen early the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had cast seven devils . . . Afterward he appeared unto the eleven as they sat at meat, and upbraided them with their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they believed not them which had seen him after he was risen." (Mark 16: 9, 14).
From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy this will be read (46: 20-24): "Jesus' unchanged physical condition after what seemed to be death was followed by his exaltation above all material conditions; and this exaltation explained his ascension, and revealed unmistakably a probationary and progressive state beyond the grave."

Charles Gregory went over the line for Georgetown's first T.D. The P.A.T. was no good.
Georgetown kicked off to the 5 yd. line. Carlisle failed to gain a first down as punted and Buffalo player Gregory received and carried the ball over the line again. The P.A.T. was no good. Later in the game, after several exchanges of the ball, George Harris scored for the Buffaloes third T.D. Georgetown kicked off with Daughtery returning the ball 15 yds. and the first half ended.
In the third quarter the game followed the same pattern with Harris making his 2nd T.D. and the Buffaloes 4th T.D. The P.A.T. was no good.
In the last quarter Tyrone Williams scored the Buffaloes 5th touch down and Steve Leach made the P.A.T. After several exchanges of the ball the game ended Georgetown 31 Carlisle 0.

Convention theme of essay contest

Should Kentuckians vote "YES" on the call for a limited Constitutional Convention is the subject for an essay contest being sponsored by KEA. The winning essay in Nicholas County (County and Independent school districts will be considered as one) will receive a $25.00 United States Saving Bond. The State winner will receive a $100.00 Saving Bond. Pupils in grades 7 through 12 are eligible to participate in the contest. The closing date for the contest in the County is October 21.
The contest is being sponsored by KEA to increase the amount of thought people in the State are giving to the Constitutional question, which will be on the November 8 ballot.
These rules are to be observed:
1. Essays should not exceed 800 words. 2. They may be either typewritten (double spaced) or written legibly in ink on 8½ by 11 paper. one side only. 3. Even though the student may consult with other persons, he should do his own writing and that the ideas reflect his own ideas on the subject. 4 No essays will be returned.

Quarry Limestone eligible for ACP cost-sharing

It is with interest to Nicholas County farmers, that H S. Vice, Chairman of Nicholas County ASC Committee announces that limestone from the Nicholas County Quarry is again eligible to be used for ACP cost-sharing. It will be necessary to use 2100 pounds per ton. Tests are made regularly of the lime from the quarry and any change which may result from these tests will be given to all interested parties. Farmers are urged to take advantage of spreading agricultural limestone on grassland or land which will be devoted to grasses and legumes in 1961. Secure a soil test of all fields to be limed and make your application at the ASC office before the lime is spread.

Burley co-op to set market opening date

Lexington, Ky.—The opening date and daily sales time for the 1960-61 tobacco marketing season will be set at a meeting of the Burley Sales Committee in Lexington Nov. 7. The date for the session was announced to directors of the Burley Tobacco Growers Cooperative Association at their annual organizational meeting.
The sales committee session will be held at headquarters of the co-op at 620 South Broadway, Lexington.
John M Berry, New Castle, was re-elected president of the co-op at the meeting. Other officers re-elected were D. J. Williams, Richmond, vice-president; W. L. Staton, Lexington, executive secretary-treasurer, and C. J King, Nicholasville, assistant secretary-treasurer.
Members of the co-op's sales committee also were re-elected. They are Tom Darnall, Flemingsburg; Dock Corman, Nicholasville, and Berry, Williams and Staton.
Seven directors, recently re-elected by growers, were sworn in at the co-op meeting. They are Irvine Bowles, Paris; A. W. Ayers, Owenton, A. Threlkeld, Cynthiana, Joe Michael, Cynthiana, John T. White, Mt. Olivet, Walter Sharp Sr., Sharpsburg, and Berry.
Berry reported that the co-op is seeking a qualified man to represent the co-op abroad as its "good will ambassador" in the association's export promotion program to encourage new markets for tobacco overseas
The group recently voted to re-establish the program after sales of tobacco itself had improved its available funds. In view of this, the association said it no longer found it necessary to ask growers to make voluntary contributions to help re-establish the "very valuable" export promotion program.
Staton reported that the directors that 1,749 hogsheads of burley held in the co-op had been sold since the board's September meeting.
He said 716 hogsheads of the total were from the 1954 crop. from the 1955 crop, and 801 hogsheads from the 1959 crop.
Directors of the association meet monthly, and the organizational meeting is held annually in October.

Agency broadens loan program

Farmer, who have regular off-farm employment, and otherwise eligible, may obtain farm operating and real estate loans from the Farmers Home Administration, under the recently revised regulations of the agency
Rob Roy Norton, Farmers Home Administration county supervisor for Harrison and Nicholas counties, said the new regulation went into effect October 1. Previously only agricultural development counties a farmer had to spend most of his time farming in order to qualify for a loan.
Experience gained in rural development counties has shown that many farmers who are regularly employed off the farm can profitably use the Farmers Home Administration's credit facilities to increase the farm income and their total income. The regulation, which had limited credit assistance to farmers who spend most of their time farming, prevented some from obtaining the maximum income from their farms and from taking advantage of opportunities for industrial and other off-farm employment.
Other eligibility requirements remain unchanged. Applicants must have sufficient farm experience to carry on sound farm operations, must need credit, and be unable to obtain adequate financial assistance from other sources. As in the past, credit will be extended only for operators of farms that are family type size or smaller. No loan will be made unless a plan for the coming year's farming operations shows that income from the farm and other sources will be large enought to enable the farm family to have a reasonable standard of living, pay debts, and have an adequate reserve for emergencies.
Loan funds may be used to pay farm operating costs, purchase equipment and livestock, pay farm development costs, and refinance certain debts. The interest rate is five percent. Repayment schedules depend upon the purposes for which funds are advanced and upon the estimated incomes from the farms. Operating loans may extend to 7 years, real estate loans to 40 years. Usually, loans made for real estate purposes will be from funds supplied by private lenders and insured by the agency Technical assistance and management assistance is supplied to the borrower to the extent necessary.
The Farmers Home Administration county supervisor for Harrison and Nicholas counties is located in the basement of the Post Office in Carlisle.

McCAULEY ESTATE SUED

A suit seeking damages totaling $1,700 against the estate of the late Barry Lane McCauley has been filed in Harrison Circuit Court, Cynthiana.
