Printed word—not obsolete!
The printed word is not obsolete. It is the most important part of our lives. It is the only way we can communicate with each other. It is the only way we can keep a record of our lives. It is the only way we can learn from the experiences of others. It is the only way we can share our thoughts and feelings. It is the only way we can build a better world for ourselves and for our children.

Kentucky needs Keen Johnson
Keen Johnson's name is familiar to every Kentuckian. He is a man of high character and high ability. He is a man who has spent his life in the service of his country and his people. He is a man who has shown himself to be a leader in every sense of the word. He is a man who has the confidence and respect of his fellow citizens. He is a man who is ready to take on the greatest challenges of our time.

Three named to local draft board; Veach presented with local jewel

James W. Miller, S. T. Cameron, and E. K. Remick appointed to draft board for Nicholas Co. by the War Relocation Authority. The board will meet on Thursday, October 27, at 8 o'clock in the evening at the home of Mrs. M. E. Stephens.

Richard Dean Spivey, 67, former superintendent of the Carlisle city school, died of heart attack Friday at his home near Crestwood, Oldham county.

Miss Emma Boyce, 1920, resident on Locust street in Boone last Thursday, Harry H. C. Metcalfe for $5,700. She was owned by Miss Rose B. Morgan and Forest C. Morganfield, who purchased her at the annual fair trials held at the home of Mrs. T. B. Hester.

Does He Like Her Or Not?
The answer is in the eyes. The eyes are the windows of the soul. They tell us what we cannot hear. They tell us what we cannot see. They tell us what we cannot think. They tell us what we cannot feel. They tell us what we cannot say.

THE WEEK'S LETTERS
Dear Sir: I am a girl of 15 and I am interested in the article in your issue of October 27th regarding the draft. I am sure that you will be interested in my letter.
