

VOLUME 94

ESTABLISHED 1867

CARLISLE, KY., THURSDAY, AUGUST 3, 1961

PRICE 10 CENTS

NUMBER 31

THREE OR MORE WILL REMEMBER THIS ONE—Several Nicholas Countians will know this aerial photo which was taken in September, 1959.

Local Church to hold meeting at Cane Ridge

Each Sunday afternoon during the summer months Christ's Church (Disciples of Christ) in Central Kentucky conduct services in the Old Cane Ridge meeting house in Bourbon county.

367 head sold at Tuesday's stock sale

Everybody was pleased, many buyers were on hand and all these words summed up Tuesday's busy and profitable stock sale at the Carlisle Stock yards.

Farm Bureau holds meeting Monday night 8 o'clock

Fry was held Thursday, July 27 at the Nicholas County High school where over 400 present.

Civil Defense meeting Monday night 8 o'clock

A V-Due Alliance, director of Civil Defense for Carlisle and Nicholas County, announced a meeting at 8 p.m. President John F. Kennedy has turned over the Pentagon primary responsibility for civil defense planning.

Local auxiliary gives picnic for Veterans

The ladies auxiliary of Lloyd George Post 8666 entertained twenty-two patients from the Veterans hospital, Lexington, Va. at a picnic at the Carlisle State Park on Friday, July 28.

'Name the lake' contest date is extended

The "name the lake" contest has been extended for an indefinite period of time. Entries mailed or taken to Day Hall should include the $1 donation which will be applied to the cost of a public swimming beach area on the new 150-acre lake.

City-County ready for lake project dinner Tuesday

Lieutenant Governor Wilson Wyatt will be the guest of honor at what is hoped to be one of the best attended public meetings ever held in Nicholas County.

500 KICK-OFF 4-H COUNCIL DRIVE—to raise funds for a 444 camp site, which it is hoped will be located in Nicholas County

The local site is one of two under consideration by the 444 camp site committee of district number 4 which comprises a 22-county area. Paul Garrett at left hands his donation to Morris Whorley and William Stone who accept for Mrs. Harvey Wagner, local 4-H Council president.

DEED RECORDED

Lucy Dismore to Stanley Kenney and wife, house and lot in Dorney addition.

MATHERS FUND APPLICATIONS

Mr. Lovell Hollar will be the coordinator to take Mathers Educational Fund applications on the following dates:

Masonic fish fry at reservoir

The Masonry Lodge No. 65 F. & A. M. will hold a fish fry for all members and their wives August 12 at the city reservoir. The affair will begin at 6 p.m.

4-H auction totals $449.15

The 4-H auction held last Saturday on the courthouse lawn was a good shot in the arm on our county fund drive.

Little League season ends

Champions Flyers won 16, lost 3; 2nd place Cubs, won 11, lost 5; 3rd place Athletics, won 10, lost 4; 4th place Redlegs, won 1, lost 17.

In the service

CS3 Billy Ray, U.S. Army, is serving in Vietnam. He has two daughters, Debra and Sandra, left August 1, after completing a few days leave with their parents.

MEL DALE TO MANAGE FLODA HOTEL HERE

Mrs. Edna Dale will manage the new 100-room Floda Hotel, Peaback Hotel, for the owners Mel and Mrs. Morgan, street, Lexington, Va. The building is undergoing extensive repairs and painting.

ASHLEY LOVETT ACCEPTS CALL

Word has been received here that Ashley Lovett, former minister of the First Christian Church, accepted the call of the First Christian Church July 21 in Shamrock, Texas. His address is Box 247, Shamrock, Texas.

Nicholas County Memories

by Lewis P. Scott
The poll to pick America's favorite hymn as announced in the Carlisle Mercury of July 20 brings back memories of childhood and a mother's love where she taught my brother and me to sing hymns which were then and still are inspiring and devotional. She sang her favorite hymns without accompaniment as she performed her countless lullabies for many of which I was personally responsible.

Mystery solved Friday evening

For whom has the grave in the cellar of the old Norfield mansion been dug? Is it for Aunt Cathie, played by Carol Lee Caswell, for Dotty, portrayed by Judy Hopkins? What is more spine-chilling than a spooky old mansion that has been shut up for a long time? Especially when two maid in suits, Cathie and Dotty, are by Susan Talbot and their two attractive nemes, Dotty and Peggy Judy Whitley, and dumb-dora maid Tilly decide to rest the place unaware that anything mysterious is going on.

Johnson Memorial hospital under new management

At a meeting of the Fiscal Court, June 29, Miss Betty Duffell and Miss Beverly Dragan, both graduate nurses from St. George's Hospital, Lexington, qualified to manage the Johnson Memorial hospital. They took over their duties Tuesday, Aug. 1.

Mobile X-Ray unit due

The big white trailer, the tuberculosis X-ray unit manned by the Kentucky State Department and donated by the Elk Lodge of Kentucky, is a familiar sight to Nicholas Countians. For several years it has come to park in back of the Nicholas County Courthouse and has welcomed all comers with a free chest X-ray.

DEED RECORDED

Jack Butler and wife, 90 acres to Robinson road.

Perhaps there are a few readers paper.

DEED RECORDED
Fred Butler and wife, 90 acres to Robinson road.

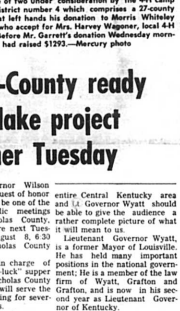

DEED RECORDED
Fred Butler and wife, 90 acres to Robinson road.

DEED RECORDED
Fred Butler and wife, 90 acres to Robinson road.

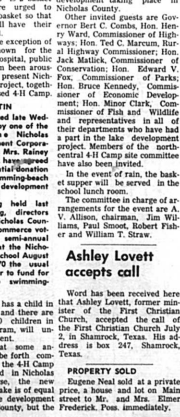

DEED RECORDED
Fred Butler and wife, 90 acres to Robinson road.

500 KICK-OFF 4-H COUNCIL DRIVE—to raise funds for a 444 camp site, which it is hoped will be located in Nicholas County

'Name the lake' contest date is extended

City-County ready for lake project dinner Tuesday