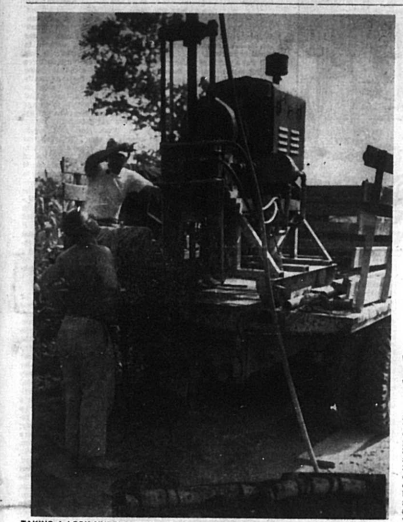
We've Been Keeping Nicholas Countians Informed Since 1867!

VOLUME 94 | ESTABLISHED 1867 | CARLISLE, KY., THURSDAY, AUGUST 24, 1961 | PRICE 10 CENTS | NUMBER 34



TAKING A LOOK UNDERGROUND—State Highway workmen are shown core drilling at the center of the 150-acre lake dam site, 2½ miles north of Carlisle. Engineers and geologists by examining the cores brought up with the machine are able to determine what the strata is made-up of and find a good solid foundation for the core of the dam. Drilling was begun Friday morning. Inset at bottom of picture shows a core specimen which measured 24 inches in length, although it appears much longer in proportion to the rear of the truck. The revolving drill bit is cooled by water pumped under high pressure from a stream nearby and can be seen bubbling up just to the right of the drill casing. The bit is forced into the ground by the hydraulic pressure mechanism shown above.—Mercury photo

Civil Defense Notes

What is an Atomic Bomb? Atomic bombs are many more times more powerful than any high explosive bombs used in war.

During World War II 394 tons of high explosive bombs were dropped on Coventry England during one raid which resulted in 380 killed, 800 injured and general disruption to transportation, communications and utilities. It is estimated that over 400 bombers took part in this raid.

At Hiroshima Japan only one atomic bomb was dropped (which had the equivalent explosive power of 20,000 tons of T.N.T.) and caused more than 100,000 casualties and practically destroyed the entire city. Only one bomber took part in this raid.

An atomic bomb of this also would bring complete destruction and 100% death to all in a 5 mile radius from where the bomb hit.

In the next 9 miles or a 10 mile radius 50% death, 35% injured and 15% uninjured, and all buildings would be damaged beyond repair. In the next 5 miles or a 15 mile radius, 15% death, 40% injured, 45% uninjured, and all buildings would have to be vacated or condemned. In the next 5 miles or a 20 mile radius 2% death, 18% injured, 20% uninjured and buildings could be repaired with vacating.

Thus a direct hit on Carlisle would mean complete death an destruction of everything to Moorefield, East Union, Jackstown, Headquarters, Barterville, Myers and all other points in a 5 mile radius.

As I stated last week a direct hit on a small community like ours is not likely to ever happen; but it could in an instant should Russia start an all out atomic war.

Our real danger is from fall-out which I will explain next week and tell you more about preparing for Survival from this deadly radiation.

Wheat referendum voting explained

Wheat producers who are eligible to vote in the August 24 wheat marketing quota referendum will be limited to those producers in commercial wheat States who raised more than 13.5 acres of wheat in any one of the 3 years 1959, 1960, or 1961, according to H. S. Vice, Chairman of the County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee. Producers who signed applications under the 1962 wheat provisions permitting them to grow wheat for feed use only on their farms for 1961 will not be eligible to vote.

At least two-thirds of the growers voting in the referendum must approve wheat quotas if they are to become effective. Under quotas, farmers participating in the 1962 Wheat Stabilization Program would be eligible for a minimum national average price support of $2 per bushel on the wheat they produce in 1962. This price reflects 84.4 percent of the August 1961 parity price. The wheat stabilization program will also provide payments for devoting diverted wheat acreages to conservation uses. In those cases where "excess" wheat results from noncompliance with a farm's acreage allotment, marketing penalties will apply.

If more than one-third of the wheat producers voting in the referendum oppose marketing quotas, there will be no restriction on wheat marketing and no wheat stabilization payments, but allotments will remain in effect as a condition for price support at 50 percent of parity, as directed by law.

Since those who vote in the August 24 referendum will decide the kind of program that will be in effect for the next wheat crop, Mr. Vice urges that every eligible voter cast his ballot so the result will be truly representative. Wheat producers who are eligible to vote may cast their ballots at the Nicholas ASCS County Office. The voting hours are from 8:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m.
