"Strengthen America . . . Character Counts"

The Boy Scouts of America are to be commended for their 51st anniversary slogan. The impact and meaning of these four words are typical of Scouting and should inspire the rest of us.

We as a nation are strong. We are free. We have the dynamism of a still-growing democracy. That growth will continue only through constantly increasing strength. And nothing will strengthen us so much as high character levels of our citizens.

For fifty-one years the Boy Scouts of America has been dedicated to the building of character and training in citizenship of American boyhood. The millions of present and former Scouts attest to the strength of the program that has helped produce so many outstanding American leaders and citizens.

Each boy, as a Boy Scout, pledges himself to be "physically strong, mentally awake, and morally straight." In our future, more than ever, we are going to need a strong citizenry to meet the increasing challenges, problems, and opportunities.

We are proud of the 6,924 Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, and Explorers of our Bluegrass Council, Boy Scouts of America, and the 840 fine leaders who work with them. Here character is being built.

We can help. Let us strengthen our local Boy Scout program.

You and your Heart

As Kentuckians know, some of our coldest weather often comes in February. February, of course, is Heart Fund Month. The Kentucky Heart Association says if it is most eager that nothing happens to your heart this month—either physically or charitably. And it emphasizes that coldness can affect the heart unfavorably in both these areas!

Speaking medically, the association cautions that undue exposure to cold—prolonged, unprotected chilling—places severe burdens on the heart and circulatory system. Even if you are in good health, and especially if you have some illness that causes poor circulation, you must guard against this.

Prolonged chilling causes small blood vessels to close down all over your body surface. The blood flow rate in these vessels can drop to as little as a fifth of normal. Your body is using your skin as a blanket to conserve heat internally. Your heart beats faster and your blood pressure goes up—all to try to keep your internal sources of warmth mobilized.

The "best medicine", of course, is prevention—dressing warmly (but not so warmly that you perspire), keeping dry, keeping hands, feet, ears and cheeks well protected, particularly in bitter ,windy weather. Take special precautions with children out in the cold. Good diet is important. And exercise helps warm blood to circulate. Swing your arms, wiggle your fingers, stamp your feet.

If you are caught in zero weather and become badly chilled, be careful. Don't rub ice and snow on fingers or toes you think might be frostbitten. Don't rub them at all. As soon as you can, get into a warm (not hot) tub of water, or under warm blankets, and take a warm, non-alcoholic drink. Don't use hot water bottles or a heat lamp. If you think you have frostbite—numbness, tingling, a sensation of cold and an ashen color in the affected part—call a doctor by all means.

Remember—posing as a "he man" in frigid weather is foolish!

Would-be first aider's can endanger wreck victims

Eager rescuers at the scene of automobile accidents can be a menace. Highway patrol officials find that about 80% of the people injured in automobiles have been pulled out by frantic would-be first-aider's. Death and permanent crippling injury is often the result of these good intentions.

The Kentucky Automobile Association urges public education on what to do for accident victims and, even more important, what not to do. The "first" to remember in a first-aid is DO NOT MOVE THE INJURED. In crashes where the injured is still in the car, turn the ignition off to prevent fire and then release any pressure from the victims without moving them. If the injured is thrown to the street, guard him from traffic, but DON'T MOVE HIM. Well meaning people have crippled the injured person by twisting a broken back, or increased internal injuries that were not even apparent; you can save a life by keeping your head and not attempting any first-aid that you are not trained to do. There is plenty to do until the ambulance arrives—and even in assuring that help does arrive by dispatching several cars for aid in different directions instead of just one. Prevent additional pile ups at the scene by posting flares or parking your car at a point to warn on coming motorists.

Keep the injured warm by putting coats over him. Slow heavy bleeding with a clean or clean cloth held firmly over the wound. Do not apply pressure on head wounds, as the skull may be fractured. Give the injured courage by assuring him help is on the way and that you are standing by with a helping hand until experts take over. Remember, above all that you are to do what you can to prevent further injury, but never attempt that for which you are not trained.

20 YEARS AND 40 YEARS AGO

Robert Mann, who has conducted a pool room and laundry agency in the Frey building for many years, has sold the pool room business to L. G. Tedder. Mr. Mann will continue to operate his laundry agency.

Practically all of the tobacco in Nicholas county has been sold, farmers report. The Lexington tobacco market will close on February 14th.

Harold Crouch, who has been clerk at the local Kroger store for several years, left last week for Maysville to be in charge of one of the stores of the company.

was on the square? There was one question I could ask that would identify both men, so looking this one right in the eye, I fired! Just as squarely he looked me in the eye as he answered and I knew he was telling the truth. I knew, too, an old grandfather and his grandson would meet in a matter of minutes after years of separation for grandad lives only a few houses from me. Truth is really stranger than fiction.

—Yap—

Two and Two and Two.

It is an old saying that "man's best friend is his dog." I believe it works the other way 'round too—a dog's best friend is man"—the right kind of man—and it so happens that I know of one to tell about. Neighbor Clay Snapp stopped in out of the cold. He was carrying a one quart paper-sip that turned out to be a young super-market —things one needs every day. When Clay runs out of one job he always finds another.

Early in the fall I was over that way and saw his little boy." He has houses and small fenced yards for his variety of dogs and at that time there were possibly more than a dozen—counting the puppies. He loves them and they love him. There were rabbits—whoopee! No idea just how many—but sure was a bunch. There were birds inside that I did not see. I have lived next door to Clay and know first-hand how he feeds and waters his pets after a hard day's work.

As he carefully fitted the boxes and bottles and zipped up the grip, I asked how many dogs he has now. He shook his head and smiled sort o' sad-like. "Not very many," he said, and began counting on his fingers. "Just the two old ones, the two young ones—and the two little chihuahuas that we keep in the house and him makes five," he continued. "I must hurry on home and fix them for the night, this cold is mighty hard on them, same as everybody does."

How are you treating your pets this bad weather? At least prepare them plenty of dry bedding out of the harsh wind and feed and water them each day. Don't let them suffer.
