Net tourney Feb. 14

LEXINGTON, KY., Jan. 23—Candidate powers Harrodsburg and Henry Clay were seeded in opposite brackets to avoid a possible quarterfinal or semifinal clash that might take away from the "dream-game" final.

The Blue Devils and Pioneers have met once earlier in the year, Harrodsburg winning, 61-57, in a thrill-packed battle on the Pioneers home court Jan. 16.

In selecting the site for the tourney, four of the participating schools placed their gymnasiums in nomination and the vote was then taken that selected Frankfort Jessamine County, not a tournament qualifier, was also nominated as a possible site but a later move by the group ruled only participating schools could host the event.

Paris, Georgetown and Harrodsburg sought to host the tourney, but Frankfort was finally awarded the site, mainly because of the larger seating capacity. The Panthers' gym seats 2,600.

The group also nominated 14 officials for the meet. Each representative ranked the officials in order of one through 14 and tabulations favored George Conley and Doc Ferrell. However, speculation had it that Conley would not be able to call the tourney because of possible previous commitments. Jack Wise was third in the balloting for officials, followed by Bill Harrell and Toddies Wells. If either Conley or Ferrell can not call the tourney Wise will be asked and so on down the list.

The group also chose F. D. Wilkinson, CKC secretary-treasurer and superintendent of Frankfort City schools, as tournament manager.

Bill Pullam of Frankfort will be the official timer and Ollie Leathers and John Snowden will act as official scorers. Leathers is football coach at Frankfort and Snowden is head grid mentor at Versailles.

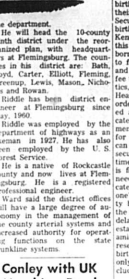
Admission for the tourney was set at 50 cents for high school students and $1.00 for adults.

President Lawson Orman presided at the two-hour meeting.

Electric co-op reaches safety milestone

Employees of Harrison Rural Electric Cooperative of Cynthiana, have reached an important milestone they have been working toward for eight years. During that period they have worked 500,000 man-hours without a lost-time accident.

On the evening of January 20 they and their guests enjoyed a dinner at Blanche's Restaurant in observance of the occasion. W. O. Penn, manager of the Cooperative, told the group that the board of directors and



Shirley B. Riddle, who will be the district engineer of the Kentucky Department of Highways for this district in the reorganization announced by Commissioner Henry Ward, is a veteran with 28 years of service in management are very much interested in the safety of their employees and that regular safety meetings are held under the direction of Mr. Joe Sewell, Director of Safety.

These safety rules are strictly observed by the cooperative —use of hard hats, use of rubber gloves and proper ground ing.

He then read a message from Allan Adair, vice-president of the cooperative and a member of the National Rural Electric Committee for Job Training and Safety, extending congratulations and expressing the intention of the board to continue to work closely with the manager to provide the equipment and training necessary for safe working conditions.

Mr. Penn presented Joe Sewell who praised the cooperative employees for their achievement and then introduced Mr. Jack E. Marble, Safety Engineer with Employers Mutual Insurance Company of Wausau, Wisconsin, who presented the cooperative with a 500,000 man-hour plaque on behalf of his company.

The cooperative has 23 employees and serves members-consumers in Harrison, Nicholas, Scott, Grant, Pendleton, Bracken, Robinson and Bourbon counties.

Riddle heads Highway District

Shirley B. Riddle, who will be the district engineer of the Kentucky Department of Highways for this district in the reorganization announced by Commissioner Henry Ward, is a veteran with 28 years of service in the department.

He will head the 10-county ninth district under the reorganized plan, with headquarters at Flemingsburg. The counties in his district are: Bath, Bord. Carter, Elliott, Fleming Greenup, Lewis, Mason, Nicholas and Rowan.

Riddle has been district engineer at Flemingsburg since May, 1960.

Riddle was employed by the department of highways as an axeman in 1927. He has also been employed by the U. S. Forest Service.

He is a native of Rockcastle county and now lives at Flemingsburg. He is a registered professional engineer.

Ward said the district offices will have a large degree of autonomy in the management of the county arterial systems and increased authority for operating functions on the state trunkline systems.

Conley with UK Marching Band at Washington

A local student at the University of Kentucky participated in the Presidential Inaugural Parade held on January 20 in Washington, D. C. The young man, William L. Conley, is a member of the UK Marching Band which represented Kentucky in the parade.

Conley, a son of Joseph F. Conley, Sycamore street, is a sophomore in UK's College of Commerce. He is a graduate of Carlisle high school.

The UK Marching Band, composed of approximately 100 musicians, is directed by Mr. Warren W. Lutz, Assistant Professor of Music. Mr. Lutz has directed the widely-known musical group for the past ten years.

Old records worth saving

"Many persons treasure old family records such as Bibles, marriage certificates, baptismal certificates and military service records. Some individuals are even reluctant to dispose of old records such as life insurance policies and drivers' licenses which are no longer in effect. A great many people do not realize, however, that these old records are of great value in establishing a person's correct date of birth at the time he becomes eligible for social security (monthly payments," according to R. A. Tweedy, District Manager, Social Security Administration, Lexington.

"Many individuals mistakenly believe that they must have a birth certificate to establish their date of birth for the Social Security Administration. Since births were not recorded in Kentucky until January 1911, this means that individuals born before that date will have to furnish certain documents and affidavits and pay a certain fee to the Bureau of Vital Statistics, State Department of Health, Frankfort, Kentucky in order to have their birth recorded and a delayed birth certificate issued. The same documents which must be submitted for a delayed birth certificate can be presented to the social security district office at the time an application for benefits is filed, thus eliminating the need for a delayed birth certificate obtained solely to establish one's eligibility to social security benefits. In some instances the documents upon which the delayed birth certificate is established may have to be examined by a social security representative when the delayed birth certificate is used in the only proof of age." Tweedy concluded.

Landrum heads Kentucky B.D.C.

Robert K. Landrum, former Vice President of banks in Lexington, Kentucky and Albany, Georgia, has assumed the position of Executive Vice President of the Business Development Corporation of Kentucky, it was announced here today.

The Business Development Corporation of Kentucky will function as a vital segment of the program to bring additional industry to the State, develop new and expand existing business and industry, increase employment and raise the per capita income. It will cooperate and act in conjunction with other organizations, public or private, in the promotion and advancement of business and industrial developments.

The Corporation will not compete with banks. An application to B.D.C. will only be considered after it has been declined by a bank or other lending institution. When a Kentucky banker feels that his institution cannot make a requested loan, he can urge the applicant to apply to the Business Development Corporation.

Before May 1, 1960, when he was employed by the First State Bank, Albany, Georgia as Vice President and Trust Officer, Landrum was a Vice President and Director of the Security Trust Company, Lexington, Kentucky. He was with the Lexington bank for eleven years. During those years he served in all offices of (1) the Lexington Clearing House Association and all offices of (2) the Central Kentucky Conference of the National Association of Bank Auditors and Comptrollers; for two years he was Kentucky State Vice President of NABAC. He represented the bank in Lexington as a Realtor on the Lexington Real Estate Board and conducted the annual "Will-Drafting Contest" at the Law School of the University of Kentucky.

Bussell fined for hauling liquor

Brooks Bussell, Nicholas County, was fined $275 and costs on a charge of transporting whisky in a dry territory in County Court Saturday by Judge Floyd Clark.

Bussell also was fined $10 and costs on a charge of following another vehicle too closely. He was cited Jan 13 by State Trooper Ed Post on the Carpenter Road.

Seventy-two half pints of whisky were found in Bussell's car, Post said.

CHILDREN'S PICTURES TAKEN FREE FOR PUBLICATION

Tuesday, Feb. 7 is the big shooting day! On that date the Mercury is having pictures taken of all children who are brought by their parents or guardians to the County Jail between 12:00 noon and 8:00 p.m. Davis Studio experienced children's photographers equipped with the latest in speed lighting will be in charge of photography

The Mercury wants a picture of your child to print in its forthcoming feature, Kiddies Korner, a series of photographic studies of local children. The new we get, the better the feature, so the co-operation of all mothers and fathers is urged.

It seems as though they're with us such a short while the first smile, the first tooth the first missing tooth for all KIDDIES KORNER wants to preserve these things for all time Join the fun of seeing your child's picture included with his playmates in the paper

There is absolutely no charge or obligation for taking the pictures Parents don't even have to be a subscriber to the Mercury.

Selection of the pose to be presented in the paper is left to the parents at which time additional pictures may be ordered if so desired. From the representative of Davis Studios

Art exhibit at NC grade

As one enters Nicholas County Grade school his attention is immediately drawn to the art exhibit on the hall walls. The first grade teacher, Mrs. Ashley Lovett, is responsible for the display. Mrs. Lovett majored in Art at Drury College in Springfield, Missouri.

At the present time three units of pictures, all drawn by Nicholas County Grade students, are on exhibition. The units include Remember Safety Doesn't Cost Anything Unless You Forget It, We Like To Play and We Like To Work. Another unit is to be added on How To Have Good Health so that pictures drawn on health topics such as the balanced diet, nutritional needs, correct table etiquette, good posture, cleanliness, daily health habits, good teeth, etc., may be shown.

Other subjects planned for display are: St. Valentine's Day, George Washington and Abraham Lincoln birthdays, St. Patrick's Day, Easter and May Day.

Weekly exhibits from each room will be shown so that each child may have an opportunity to draw a picture. Young artists are working hard to draw pictures that will be suitable to be placed in the hall of exhibition.

Smart, Wills taking advance training at Ft. Sill

FORT SILL, OKLA (AHTNC) —Two soldiers from Myers, Privates Billy C Smart and Russell S. Wills Jr., are receiving eight weeks of advanced individual training at The Artillery and Missile School, Fort Sill, Okla. The training is scheduled to end Feb. 17.

They are being trained in the duties of a cannoneer with the 105-millimeter howitzer, a light field artillery weapon.

The school, which has as its motto, "skill is better than luck," emphasizes leadership and the practical application of field artillery tactics and techniques in the employment of artillery mortars, conventional cannon, free rockets and guided missiles.

They entered the Army last March and completed basic training at Fort Knox, Ky.

CHILDREN'S PICTURES TAKEN FREE FOR PUBLICATION

Tuesday, Feb. 7 is the big shooting day! On that date the Mercury is having pictures taken of all children who are brought by their parents or guardians to the County Jail between 12:00 noon and 8:00 p.m. Davis Studio experienced children's photographers equipped with the latest in speed lighting will be in charge of photography

The Mercury wants a picture of your child to print in its forthcoming feature, Kiddies Korner, a series of photographic studies of local children. The new we get, the better the feature, so the co-operation of all mothers and fathers is urged.

It seems as though they're with us such a short while the first smile, the first tooth the first missing tooth for all KIDDIES KORNER wants to preserve these things for all time Join the fun of seeing your child's picture included with his playmates in the paper

There is absolutely no charge or obligation for taking the pictures Parents don't even have to be a subscriber to the Mercury.

Selection of the pose to be presented in the paper is left to the parents at which time additional pictures may be ordered if so desired. From the representative of Davis Studios

If definite appointment is desired call Mrs. James Marshall 265-W

Art exhibit at NC grade

As one enters Nicholas County Grade school his attention is immediately drawn to the art exhibit on the hall walls. The first grade teacher, Mrs. Ashley Lovett, is responsible for the display. Mrs. Lovett majored in Art at Drury College in Springfield, Missouri.

At the present time three units of pictures, all drawn by Nicholas County Grade students, are on exhibition. The units include Remember Safety Doesn't Cost Anything Unless You Forget It, We Like To Play and We Like To Work. Another unit is to be added on How To Have Good Health so that pictures drawn on health topics such as the balanced diet, nutritional needs, correct table etiquette, good posture, cleanliness, daily health habits, good teeth, etc., may be shown.

Other subjects planned for display are: St. Valentine's Day, George Washington and Abraham Lincoln birthdays, St. Patrick's Day, Easter and May Day.

Weekly exhibits from each room will be shown so that each child may have an opportunity to draw a picture. Young artists are working hard to draw pictures that will be suitable to be placed in the hall of exhibition.

Smart, Wills taking advance training at Ft. Sill

FORT SILL, OKLA (AHTNC) —Two soldiers from Myers, Privates Billy C Smart and Russell S. Wills Jr., are receiving eight weeks of advanced individual training at The Artillery and Missile School, Fort Sill, Okla. The training is scheduled to end Feb. 17.

They are being trained in the duties of a cannoneer with the 105-millimeter howitzer, a light field artillery weapon.

The school, which has as its motto, "skill is better than luck," emphasizes leadership and the practical application of field artillery tactics and techniques in the employment of artillery mortars, conventional cannon, free rockets and guided missiles.

They entered the Army last March and completed basic training at Fort Knox, Ky.

Smart is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil C. Smart, Route 1, is a 1956 graduate of Carlisle High school.

Wills, 20, whose parents live on Route 1, is a 1959 graduate of Nicholas County High school in Carlisle and attended Morehead State College.

'60 wool payments apply to sales before April

Wool growers were reminded today that the 1960-program payments, to be made this summer, will be made only on wool and unshorn lambs which are marketed before March 31, 1961. This is the closing date for the 1960 Program

H. S. Vice, Chairman of the Nicholas County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee also pointed out that applications for such payments under the 1960 wool program must be filed before the end of April 1961

He emphasized that adequate records on the sales must support the information on the payment applications. For instance, growers' sales records for shorn wool should show the address of buyer, date of sale, name and address of producer, net weight of wool sold, and net proceeds to producer after normal marketing deductions.

Payments to producers for the 1960 marketing year will follow the same procedure employed for the 1959 year. Shorn wool payments will be equal to a percentage of each producers' cash receipts from sales The percentage—to be announced later this year—will be that required to raise the national average price received by 9-30 a.m. and following morning ng worship on Sundays.
