The secretary read the minutes, called the roll, and distributed membership cards to the girls who were present. Then our song leader led us in a song.

We were very honored to have the Reverend August Peters, of the Baptist Church, as our guest speaker. He gave a wonderful talk on the great story of Ruth.

Afterwards a duet was sung by Judy Caswell and Jean McClanahan. Then we all sang God Be With You. Then our meeting was adjourned.

Teacher Appreciation Week

Governor Bert Combs has issued a proclamation designating the week of March 19-25 as "Teacher Appreciation Week."

All board members, parents and civic clubs are urged to do all they can during this week to really and truly show the teachers in the schools that they are appreciated.

The proclamation was issued on March 3 at Frankfort by Governor Combs:

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME:

Whereas, education of the people is essential to the operation and perpetuation of democratic government and to the peace and welfare of community and

Whereas, learned men have declared, "Nothing is so wasteful as ignorance, and the elevation of an entire people is beyond all price"; and

Whereas, the Kentucky Education Association recognizes the urgent need to retain our teachers and to attract young people for teaching in our schools;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, BERT COMBS, Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, do hereby proclaim the week of March 19-25, 1961, as

and request the boards of education and citizens of the school communities throughout the Commonwealth design and hold appropriate programs, services and activities which will honor and commend the twenty-five thousand unselfish teachers of the state and convey to them the understanding, appreciation and support of the citizens.
