

ATTENDANTS OF THE KING AND QUEEN OF THE MOOREFIELD HALLOWEEN CARNAVAL were: Connie Clinkensbe, Bobby Ausler, Earn Garrett, Michael Mitchell, Donna Ecton, Harold Walden, Queen, Mary Ann Mitchell, King, Billy Joe Jones, Jackie Chalk, Elizabeth Ann Price, Willie Hogg, Sharon Ecton, Karen Watkins, Peggy Hatten. In the background are Charlotte Steery and Jim McMillan.

NCHS '61-62 net schedule released

The Nicholas County high school basketball schedule consists of 27 games. The schools and dates are: Nov. 3, Tullahoma; Nov. 7, Owsingville; Nov. 14, Verdula; Nov. 21, Cambridge; Nov. 28, Montgomery; Dec. 1, Fleming; Dec. 8, High; Dec. 12, Middle-town; Dec. 15, Cynthiana; Dec. 19, Hazard; Dec. 23, St. Agatha; Jan. 5, Paris; Jan. 12, Good Shepherd; Jan. 16, Tullahoma; Jan. 19, Cynthiana; Jan. 23, Cynthiana; Jan. 26, Sharpsburg; Jan. 30, Middle-town; Feb. 6, Fleming; Feb. 13, Cynthiana; Feb. 20, Cambridge; Feb. 27, Mercer Co.; Feb. 23, Lex Catholic.

NCHS basketball starts Friday

By Sandra Cooper
I think we ought to be able to play a game if we get the maximum out of everyone," commented Coach Glenn Doran as he viewed the prospects of the opening game of the season to be played Friday, Nov. 3, at Tullahoma.

QUEEN AND KING OF THE MOOREFIELD HALLOWEEN CARNAVAL

held Oct. 27. Miss Mary Ann Mitchell daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Mitchell, King, Billy Joe Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Jones.

Letter to County Attorney explains budget story error run last week

Editor's Note: The following letter explains a story published in the Carlisle Mercury, published last week in which it appeared the county had exceeded its budget.

October 27, 1961
Mr. Charles Cox,
Nicholas County Attorney,
Carlisle, Kentucky

I wish that you would inform the fiscal court of the following facts. Normally this would not be necessary. However, in view of the fact that the budget was not approved until after the fact, it is necessary to advise you of the actual situation. The budget was approved on October 27, 1961, and the actual revenue for the year is $2,122,956.50, which is $122,956.50 in excess of the budget. This is due to the fact that the actual revenue for the year is $2,122,956.50, which is $122,956.50 in excess of the budget.

CHS Band at Morehead

The Carlisle High School band, under the direction of Fred and Arthur Junior, left for Morehead, Ky., on Wednesday, Oct. 25, for the pre-game concert at the home of the band.

PHYSICAL EXAM CALL

The following men will be making their scheduled physical examination on Wednesday, Nov. 8, at 11:15 a.m. at the Physical Examination Center.

SEEKS RE-ELECTION

U. S. Representative James C. Watts will seek re-election to Congress in the primary next May.

DEVELOPMENT MEETING TONIGHT (THURSDAY)

The Nicholas County Development Corporation will hold their regular meeting tonight at 7:30 at the county house. The last tract of land to be acquired will be purchased this week and the deed recorded. With this accomplished the Highway Department in Frankfort will be notified in accordance with the lettering of the contract to build the dam, immediately.

Vote yes library plea

Frankfort, Nov.—An affirmative vote Nov. 7 on the proposed special library tax will be worth at least $21,000 to Nicholas County, according to information received by the Extension Division in Frankfort. The East Union workers with the Nicholas County area would mean that the library tax would be worth as much as $10,000 to the county.

4-H Fund Drive progresses

The 4-H Camp Site Fund Drive is well under way in the county. The fund drive has been extended to all areas of the county. The fund drive is being conducted by the Extension Division in Frankfort.

Poll officers are named

Sheriff John Anderson, Sheriff man Crum and Harold Letton, election commissioners have selected precinct officers for the election in Nicholas County Nov. 7.

Traffic Safety program at NCHS Nov. 8

Students at Nicholas County high school will have a traffic safety program at 1:30 p.m. on Nov. 8 at 1:30 p.m. when one of their classmates learned the facts of life-on-the-highway.

G. C. Townsend robbed Sunday

A masked man Sunday morning snatched and robbed a retired cattle merchant as he entered his barn.

Band Boosters club adopts Constitution

The Band Boosters Club met Tuesday Oct. 24, in the cafeteria of the Carlisle City school. The constitution of the club was adopted.

RECT LANE SIGNS

Several shareholders of a Nicholas County Development Corporation were in hand Wednesday afternoon to help erect the equipment.

LECTED — Attorney Roger

W. H. Womack has been named to the board of directors of Military Military Institute.

Tobacco Festival program is outlined

4-H Fund Drive progresses

The 4-H Camp Site Fund Drive is well under way in the county. The fund drive has been extended to all areas of the county. The fund drive is being conducted by the Extension Division in Frankfort.

Poll officers are named

Sheriff John Anderson, Sheriff man Crum and Harold Letton, election commissioners have selected precinct officers for the election in Nicholas County Nov. 7.

Traffic Safety program at NCHS Nov. 8

Students at Nicholas County high school will have a traffic safety program at 1:30 p.m. on Nov. 8 at 1:30 p.m. when one of their classmates learned the facts of life-on-the-highway.

G. C. Townsend robbed Sunday

A masked man Sunday morning snatched and robbed a retired cattle merchant as he entered his barn.

Band Boosters club adopts Constitution

The Band Boosters Club met Tuesday Oct. 24, in the cafeteria of the Carlisle City school. The constitution of the club was adopted.

RECT LANE SIGNS

Several shareholders of a Nicholas County Development Corporation were in hand Wednesday afternoon to help erect the equipment.

LECTED — Attorney Roger

W. H. Womack has been named to the board of directors of Military Military Institute.

Tobacco Festival program is outlined

The fifth annual Nicholas County Tobacco Festival will be held at the Carlisle Armory, Friday, Nov. 17. Tobacco exhibits are limited to growers of Nicholas County. The program committee is composed of Lowell Hollar, chairman; Joe Allen Stone, vice chairman; Nathan Young, Sr., secretary; George Giffin, Everett Duncan, W. T. Straw, Hoot Ashbury, Mike Berry, S. B. Barlow, Jim Ledford, Clay Dayton, Jack Morrison, James C. Lowe, Fred Whaley, Joe Crouch, Charles K. Watkins, Sam Smith, and Joe Morrison.

4-H Fund Drive progresses

The 4-H Camp Site Fund Drive is well under way in the county. The fund drive has been extended to all areas of the county. The fund drive is being conducted by the Extension Division in Frankfort.

Poll officers are named

Sheriff John Anderson, Sheriff man Crum and Harold Letton, election commissioners have selected precinct officers for the election in Nicholas County Nov. 7.

Traffic Safety program at NCHS Nov. 8

Students at Nicholas County high school will have a traffic safety program at 1:30 p.m. on Nov. 8 at 1:30 p.m. when one of their classmates learned the facts of life-on-the-highway.

G. C. Townsend robbed Sunday

A masked man Sunday morning snatched and robbed a retired cattle merchant as he entered his barn.

Band Boosters club adopts Constitution

The Band Boosters Club met Tuesday Oct. 24, in the cafeteria of the Carlisle City school. The constitution of the club was adopted.

RECT LANE SIGNS

Several shareholders of a Nicholas County Development Corporation were in hand Wednesday afternoon to help erect the equipment.

LECTED — Attorney Roger

W. H. Womack has been named to the board of directors of Military Military Institute.

(Continued on page 5)