Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor: Did you know? Judge Joe Clay is in his 47th year of continuous service with us city. In December his final year will be completed as judge of the Police Court. He installed the city's first meter system in 1914 and was in charge of it and of other city services for 29 years, previous to being elected as Police Judge in 1903. Through the years, alert employees have gratefully profited from his cheerful help and advice, while his services will be gratefully remembered by all citizens. The Judge will continue his residence on School Avenue and his interest in the city's welfare.
