4-H Camp to locate here

22 CABINS, A 12-acre LAKE ON THIS CLEARING—Plus 2,400 youngsters a camping season is part of the plans of the North Central 4-H Camp site committee as negotiations continue on the been notified that the North Central 4-H Camp site committee, Inc., has selected a well suited for expansion, John Perkins, of Paris, 4-H committee member, said. "Another good feature is that it is close to a location of a 4-H Camp which will be an important step in the future progress of the County. The obtaining of the 4-H Camp has not been accomplished without some requirements and arrangements. The most important consideration is the raising of funds to help purchase the land on which the camp site will be located. At a meeting of the Development Corporation on Friday night, September 29, a large group of citizens were advised that it would be necessary to raise the sum of $28,000 for the state wide twenty-five dollar Democratic Fund Camp Site and for Nicholas Blaine Dinner to be held in County's quota in the 4-H Camp fund raising campaign. Actual money required was $24,000, but the North-Central 4-H Camp Committee Inc. donated $8,000 towards the purchase price leaving a balance of $16,000.

Every man, woman and child interested in this County, who has the interest of this project at heart, will undoubtedly be contacted in the next few days or weeks to assist in the raising of these funds. This is the opportunity of a lifetime to donate to helping ticket sales is the fact a most worthy cause which Mrs. Sanford is originally should mean much, to not only from Christian County and has the people of Nicholas County relatives throughout the state but all the surrounding area also, that that Kenneth had for years to come will be open Saturday afternoon, there will be the University of Kentucky-Kentucky State football game at Stull field.
