Wool ballots to be mailed

Ballots for voting in the referendum on the lamb and wool promotion and market development program will be mailed between September 4 and 7, to producers in Nicholas County, H. S. Vice, Chairman, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee, announced today.

The referendum will determine whether or not deductions will continue to be made from producer payments earned under the wool incentive program. Funds collected are used by the American Sheep Producers Council to carry out a program of advertising, promotion, and related activities under an agreement with the Secretary of Agriculture.

According to the Chairman, such an agreement has been in effect since the 1955 marketing year, as approved by producers voting in 1955 and 1959 referendums. If approved in the September referendum, the agreement will be extended for 4 more years.

Producers having two-thirds of the volume of production represented by votes in the referendum must approve if the agreement is to be extended. Consideration will also be given to the number of votes cast for and against the agreement by individual producers.

Deductions from wool and lamb payments under the new agreement would not exceed 1 cent per pound for shorn wool and 5 cents per hundredweight for unshorn lambs. Deductions at these rates have been made from payments for each previous marketing year since 1955.

Carlisle Coop holds annual meeting

Clay Dayton and Maxwell Burden were elected to the Southern States Carlisle Cooperative, Inc., at the annual membership meeting on Aug. 10. Over 850 members and friends attended.

Also elected to the Farm Home Advisory committee were Mrs. Eugene Smoot and Mrs Tommy Grimes.

Jimmy Judge of Moorefield was named chairman of the board of directors while Herbert Cecil Duncan was picked as vice-chairman.

Mrs. Edgar A. Darnell was chosen FHA committee chairman while Mrs. John R. Fryman was named secretary.

Frank Terrell was chosen a delegate to represent the cooperative at the 39th Annual Stockholders meeting in Richmond, Va., on Oct. 25-26. Jimmy Judge was named alternate.

Jaycees sponsor wild west rodeo

The Carlisle Nicholas County Jaycees will sponsor the "Cherokee Ranch Rodeo" at the Nicholas County high school grounds, Wednesday and Thursday, August 29 and 30 at 8:00 p.m.

The Rodeo will feature approximately two hours of bronco busting, bull riding, trick and fancy roping, clown acts and about 20 cowboys and gals who have entertained all over the nation to the delight of children and grownups alike.

The Cherokee Ranchers recently played in Owingsville for the Lions Club and were signed up for next year, which is proof they gave a good performance.

The Jaycees will use the proceeds from the show to purchase road signs to be erected at all intersections of Nicholas county. This project is estimated to cost about $600.

This is one of many undertakings by the Jaycees to help and improve our community. Support them now in this, their new project by attending the Rodeo and help improve your community, back your local organization, and enjoy yourself.

'62 payments due in Sept.

Final payments to farmers taking part in the 1962 wheat stabilization program and the 1962 feed grain program for corn, grain sorghum, and barley are scheduled to be made after September 1, Nicholas County, H. S. Vice, Chairman, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee, announced today. As a means of helping farmers meet their production expenses and at the same time maintain their income, advance payments were made to many producers at the time they signified their intention of participating in the program.

Mr. Vice reminded farmers that the compliance with provisions of the diversion programs does not end with receipt of the final program payments. The land released from production may not be grazed or a crop harvested from it through the end of crop year, 1962, and it must be devoted to an approved conservation use, with all other program provisions being met fully. A violation of program provisions could result in a substantial loss to the producer.

Payments under the 1962 programs are directed toward maintaining farmers' income during the period of adjusting production to more realistic levels. The acreage reduction continues the trend started with the 1961 feed grain program to bring about a better balance between feed grain production and needs.

Farm Bureau day at State Fair

Nicholas Farm Bureau members are urged to attend the Kentucky State Fair on Tuesday September 11 — Farm Bureau Rural Electric Day. Attractive prizes will be awarded to lucky winners.

"Topping a long list of outstanding attendance by Committee announced today. As a means of helping farmers meet their production expenses and at the same time maintain their income, advance payments were made to many producers at the time they signified their intention of participating in the program.

Another outstanding prize will be a trip for two to Atlanta, Georgia, in December to attend the annual convention of the American Farm Bureau. The prize will be awarded to the county Farm Bureau whose members pile up the largest total mileage in attending the Fair. Several counties, vying hard for this prize, are planning on bringing cars or bus loads of members.

Other attendance prizes will include a combination refrigerator-freezer; electric blankets and several other prizes.

HEAD TO ASSIST EX-SERVICEMEN

Ben Head, a Contact Representative of the Kentucky Disabled Ex-Service Men's Board will be present on Tuesday, August 28, at the Lower Court room in Carlisle, to assist veterans and their dependents with claims for benefits due them as a result of their military service.

He will be present from 9:00 a.m. until 2:00 p.m.

No charge for services.

V.F.W. FISH FRY

The V.F.W. annual fish fry will be held Friday, Aug. 17, at 7 p.m. at the City Lake.

Grocery and locker plant gutted by fire

Pitman's grocery and frozen food locker plant on East Main street, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Pitman, was badly damaged by fire about 1:25 a.m. Sunday. Fire Chief Oliver Vice said the blaze apparently was caused by an overheated motor. He said the fire originated in the basement of the building where the motors were located.

The Bourbon County fire department was called to help control the fire.

Meat and other food stored in the rental lockers was removed and most from the store refrigerators was moved to another store.

Apartments on the second floor of the building, occupied by Miss Ruby Small and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Knapke, were damaged by smoke and water.

The building was covered by insurance and the equipment was partially covered by insurance.

The "General" Comes to Town

by Tobitt Elder

Last Wednesday at 11:25 a.m. the famous "General" locomotive of Civil War history came to town under its own power. With a loud blast of the whistle and a final puff of black smoke it rolled to an easy stop in front of the railroad office. Immediately the bystanders who had come to see this remarkable locomotive began to inspect it.

It had traveled many miles since its purchase in December of 1855 from the Rogers, Ketchum and Grosvenor Locomotive Works in Patterson, N. J., by the Western & Atlantic Railway for the amount of $8,850. The "General" is better than 30 feet long. It has five-foot drivers and has a capacity of 150 lbs. of steam for each driver. In its beginning it burned wood but now it uses oil. It has a 1700 gallon water tank now located in the tender. (See pictures on page three).

After the purchase by the Western & Atlantic Railroad in December of 1855 from the Rogers, Ketchum and Grosvenor Locomotive works the "General" went to work traveling from Atlanta, Ga. to Chattanooga, Tenn. Its colorful past began on April 12, 1862 when it was stolen by the Andrews Raiders during the Civil War. It survived the war and in 1870 it was tied up for the winter at Big Shanty, Ga. (now Kennesaw). It was there that the Andrews Raiders stole the "General" and headed north. They were pursued by the conductor, engineer and firemen of the "General" and a famous chase began. The Raiders were finally overtaken by the pursuers and the "General" was returned to service.

After the war it was repaired by the W. & A. shops. It lost the extra steam dome, ankle rails, strap iron pilot and baboon stack. Later in the decade it was converted to a coal burner and given a diamond stack and acquired the No. 3 it now bears.

In 1891 things looked dim for the "General" as it sat on a siding at Vining Station, Ga., listed as condemned, value $1,500, ready to be scrapped. Later that year, following lease of the W. & A. to the N. C. & St. Louis Railroad, the "General" was taken to the Nashville shops for overhaul and refurbishing, then placed on display in Union Station in Chattanooga. In 1914, it was taken out of retirement. It was given new flues and was steamed up for a part in a motion picture. On a test run to Washington, Tenn., it attained a speed of 50 miles per hour.

In 1940, the "General," while on display at the Railroad Fair in Chicago, lightfingered fans stole several oil cups and almost a cord of wood from the tender.

On August 31, 1957 the "General" and lease of the W. & A. was squired to the L. & N. Railway when the N. C. & St. Louis railway was merged.

Several years ago the "General" was again used in the filming of a movie. This time for the movie.
