Letter to Editor

Dec. 3, 1962

Editor of The Mercury:

Our Christmas parade is now history and we of the Chamber of Commerce and Nicholas Jaycees are proud of the fine turnout and parade presented.

As you know, the Chamber provides over $350 a year to this event which is planned and managed by the Jaycees.

But the success of the parade has been due to the public spirited members of the various organizations who labor long and hard each year to present the very best entries possible. The judges shared our belief that all entries were deserving of prizes.

To these groups, we express our heartfelt thanks for making the spirit of Christmas more meaningful to all.

Yours truly,
J. A. Carter and
Eugene Kelly,
Jaycee Chairmen
Paul Garrett,
C of C president

Entertain Hunters

Dewey Miller, Bedford, Pa., Commissioner for the Wildlife Department of Pennsylvania, K. A. Thomas, James Fisher and Ausa Pepple, were entertained with a two day rabbit hunt by Jesse Hunt and Harry Duncan. 42 rabbits were killed.

A thoughful way to say Merry Christmas

Electrical gifts are more appreciated. They remind them of of your thoughtfulness throughout the year. You can select the exact present for each family member from the many useful electrical gifts. The wide selection of prices makes it helpful, too

This year for sure, make yours a thoughtful Christmas. Give electrically! See your dealer now while his selections are still plentiful.
