IT'S NO SECRET!

Once it's been told... it's hard to keep secrets. We like to feel that someone trusts us enough to tell us something that is "top secret".

Funny, too, these things are hard to keep, especially when you're in a hurry. What a secret is... it's not a secret. It's just a piece of information that's been spread around.

There, now, we let the cat out of the bag. (You could say we're already known!)
