IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our mother Sudie Caudill, who died one year ago today, January 18, 1961.
Time cannot take away the ache
Nor lessen the grief we feel
For the one we loved so dearly
Is the one we can't forget.
Sadly missed by her children and grandchildren.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our children, friends and relatives for the beautiful gifts, flowers and cards received on our sixtieth Wedding anniversary Jan. 3. Especially to Rev. Bert Combs for his greetings and the ones who called Mr. and Mrs. Joe Watson. 1-18-1t

CARD OF THANKS

I want to thank the Nicholas County hospital staff and the nurses, Dr. Kingsolver, Dr. Pendergrass, who were so nice to me while in the hospital and also the ones who sent flowers, fruit candy and cards. And my thanks to my good neighbors for all they did for me, seeing to everything and doing my work. Thanks to one and all. Bob Crouse. 1-18-1t*

FISHING TIMETABLE

Not everyone can pick the winner of the Kentucky Derby, but, nevertheless, most fishermen know when that race will be run.

Likewise not every person can check fish-bite data, but most of the fishermen do know the periods in which fishing is best for a given species. Therefore, this timetable. It tells the most likely time to try for the fish of your choice, but the catching is up to you.

Nation's Mailmen Are Potent Force In March of Dimes Disease Battle

A small, yellow envelope serving as a harbinger of an expanding war on crippling disease arrives in the mailboxes of 40 million American families this week.

It brings the "mercy" of the 1962 March of Dimes, now dedicated to seeking the answers to birth defects and arthritis — two continuing ills which cripple children each year and the "mercy" of the March of Dimes Wild Duck Stamps.

Addressed by tens of thousands of volunteers in the county chapters of The National Foundation, March of Dimes across the nation, this envelope will carry the pleas and solicitations of victims of these diseases to the immediate help and future hope through the generosity of the American people.

The prediction on the mailer, "Your Dimes Will Do It Again" is a reference, of course, to the March of Dimes' many polio services and to the latter Salk oral vaccine. Both were made possible, at were the medical care and rehabilitation of many of those paralyzed by polio, by public contributions to the March of Dimes' many millions of the dollars as well as by the unsolicited three-dollar contributions some to local chapters through similar mailers in years past.

Recipients of these mailers, including those in distant Hawaii and Alaska, were urged by the March of Dimes leaders this week to return the mailers to their chapters as promptly as possible.

As one chapter chairman said: "Aside from financial outlays needed urgently for research, and for total medical care of victims, The National Foundation-March of Dimes must expand its already existing program of chronic, crippling-supported clinics helping those stricken by birth defects or by arthritis.

"The figures give you an idea of the appalling magnitude of the problem. Each year in this country, at least 250,000 infants are born with significant birth defects and 21,000 die. This we must prevent.

"Of the 9 million-plus arthritis sufferers, at least 200,000 patients recently are crippled. Altogether, more than 11 million Americans suffer from the arthritic diseases. This must not happen in the future.

"When we say to the public that 'Your Dimes Will Do It Again,' we have a definite goal. We mean precisely that. Some folks believed that the answer to polio would never be found. But our scientists never abandoned hope and, because of March of Dimes contributions from those who believed as we did, the answer was found. Tens of thousands of lives have been saved since then, and tens of thousands saved from crippling.

"None of us, scientists included, knows when the answers will be found to birth defects and arthritis. We just know, as we knew with conviction before the Salk vaccine, that those answers will be found, provided sufficient public support is forthcoming."

National Poster Child of 1962 March of Dimes, Debbie Sue Brown, 5, Clarkston, Wash., exhibits jumbo-sized mailer for contributions. Born with the serious birth defect of an open spine, Debbie Sue inserts bill in an envelope almost as tall as she is.

Tree planting time is near in County

Tree planting time in Nicholas County is almost here and forest tree seedlings are being lifted from seed beds at the three State forest nurseries, Gene L. Butcher, director of the Kentucky Division of Forestry, Frankfort, has announced.

Bundles, ready for quick delivery, are packed in units of 500 and 1,000 of white, loblolly and shortleaf pines. Orders received from Nicholas Countians during January and February will receive prompt attention, Butcher said.

A bundle of 1,000 seedlings costs $8. Selections can be made from a list of white, loblolly and shortleaf pines and black locust

UK GRADUATE SCHOOL GETS SPECIAL GIFT

The University of Kentucky Graduate School is one of 84 such schools throughout the nation which will share in a $2,148,000 gift from the Woodrow Wilson National Fellowship Foundation. The only Kentucky school sharing in the grant, UK will receive $6,000. Dr. A. D. Kirwan, dean of the UK Graduate School, said three-fourths of the sum will be used to provide three $1,500 fellowships for the 1962-63 academic year. The remaining $1,500 will be used to finance a special project yet to be determined.

UK FACULTY MOVING TO SPINDLETOP HALL

The University of Kentucky faculty-staff alumni club will move from its present quarters at Carnahan House to Spindletop Hall about February 1. Some of the furniture and furnishings needed to convert the 40-room manor house into a modern clubhouse already is in place, including articles valued at $61,390 which were presented to the University recently by Mrs. Patsy Young of Richmond, Tex., former owner of Spindletop Hall. A formal opening will be held in the spring.

Elvis Stahr selected Kentuckian of the Year by K.P.A.

Army Secretary Elvis J. Stahr, Jr., was named the Kentuckian of The Year, Saturday by the Kentucky Press Association at their 92nd annual Mid Winter convention held Jan 11 thru 13 at the Phoenix Hotel, Lexington.

The award was presented to Stahr by Enos Swaim, editor of the Danville Advocate-Messenger and a past president of KPA.

In the presentation, Swaim noted that Stahr — a native of Hickman although a resident of the Washington, D. C. area now — has always been a Kentuckian, no matter where his travels have taken him, and in response Stahr commented that he still considers Kentucky his home.

The Army secretary added that he was humbled to this signal honor because of the quality of the past recipients of the award, which first was presented to Vice President Alben W. Barkley in 1948.

Fred B. Wachs, general manager and president of the Lexington Herald-Leader Company, received the president's cup presented to the KPA's most valuable member. William Caywood, editor of the Winchester Sun, presented the award.

Officers Named

The KPA elected John Gaines, publisher of the Park City News, Bowling Green, as its 1962 president.

Besides Gaines, new officers elected Saturday were Fred Burkhard, vice president, Victor B. Portmann, secretary-manager, and George Joplin III, chairman of the executive committee.

Burkhard is editor and publisher of the Casey County News. Portmann has been in the secretary's job since 1942, and Joplin is editor of the Somerset Commonwealth.

Named by the president to serve with officers on the executive committee were Larry Stone, Central City; Maurice K. Henry, Middlesboro; Warren B. Fisher, Carlisle; Basil Community, Louisville. W. Foster Adams, Berea; Edwards M. Templin, Lexington, and James T. Norris Jr., Ashland.

$150 DONATION

John Soper reports that the United and Progressive Tobacco warehouse, Lexington, has donated $150 to the 4-H camp site fund.

Wagoner says 4-H Camp site drive fund now exceeds $19,000

Special gifts by Nicholas Countians in the 4-H Camp site drive now have totaled slightly more than nineteen thousand dollars, Harvey Wagoner, finance chairman said. This means that the drive is now four thousand short of the $23,000 needed for the purchase of the land site. Gifts are still coming in and we have until February 1 to raise the remainder of the goal. A meeting of drive workers will be held again Thursday night, January 25 at 7:30 p.m. at the County Court House.

Charles Cox, president of the Development Corporation, met with the North Central Kentucky 4-H Camp Executive Committee on Monday of this week and discussed the content of the deed of the camp site property, which is currently being prepared for final presentation within the next few days. The eight thousand dollar check from the North Central Kentucky 4-H Camp Fund, was presented to Mr. Cox as the only remaining gift from any group of their part on the land for the camp site and should confirm in full the donation of $19,000.

Womanless Wedding To Be Staged For Benefit Of Girl Scouts

A womanless wedding will be staged on February 9 at the Nicholas County high school starring a members of the Nicholas County Girl Scouts.

Men will don the garb of women in several instances in a purely entertaining affair for the good cause. The committee in charge of the affair is Mrs. Frank Gudgell, Mrs. Robert Broadbent, Mrs. James Conrad and Mrs. Harvey Wagoner.

LOCAL DENTIST STRICKEN ILL LAST FRIDAY

Dr. William E. Mcginty was able to be home in August after purchasing the dental equipment of Dr. G. T. Cowan, became ill at his office on Monday and died at 2 pm Friday.

He was taken to the Nicholas County hospital where his condition is reported satisfactory.

Land deed given to 4-H Camp group

Citizens of Nicholas County Monday transferred to the North Central Kentucky 4-H Camp Committee the deed to a 225 acre tract of land for use as a district 4-H Club camp.

County Attorney Charles M. Clay, president of the Nicholas County Development Corporation, representing the group, delivered the document to John Perkins Paris, president of the camp committee, at the University of Kentucky, Lexington.

The district camp committee represents the 22 counties of North Central Kentucky. Cox a check for $8,000 as it, share of the valued tract. The Nicholas County previously has paid the Development Corporation $23,200. Both groups, the district committee and the citizens have — have been raising funds through voluntary contributions.

The 350 acre tract is a half-mile off U. S. 68, about two and one-half miles north of Carlisle. A secondary access road will be built from the main highway to the site in the near future.

Perkins said the camp site, when improved, will have cabin housing for some 2000 4-H Club members and leaders per camp session. There will be a dining room and kitchen, a shelter house, shower house and other buildings, plus a sewage disposal plant.

There are about 18,000 4-H Club members in the 22-county district. During camping season the site can accommodate about 2,400 youngsters. Two lakes will be built.

The camp will be available to other groups during the off-season.

Cox said the camp adjoins a 514-acre tract owned by the Nicholas County Development Corp., which will be developed by private capital as a recreation area.

PRINCIPAL SPEAKER—Smith Broadbent Jr., president of the Kentucky Chamber of Commerce, addresses members of the Nicholas County Chamber of Commerce and other guests at the local chamber's semi-annual dinner meeting Friday at the Masonic hall. The meal was prepared and served by the ladies of the Eastern Star to 97 persons.
