NEW UNIFORMS FOR NCHS "A" TEAM

By Stanley Caswell

"Dressed in style" described the Nicholas County "A" Team as they made their debut in new uniforms Tuesday night, January 16.

The new uniforms, purchased by the Athletic Department of Nicholas County high school, seems to have brought Coach Dorroh's Bluejackets luck as they defeated Tollesboro 64-62 in the last Tuesday night game.

The warm-up suits are white orlon fleece trimmed in blue. On the back of the jackets, Nicholas is written in blue and underneath there is the Bluejacket emblem.

The "home" uniforms are white trimmed in blue. The suits have Nicholas and the number on the front and there are enlarged numbers on the back.

The "away" uniforms are sun-Blue to the home uniforms excepting that they are blue trimmed in white. Both the home and away uniforms have blue, trimmed in white knee socks.

The "B" team is now using the uniforms formerly used by the "A" team. The "B" team also did their new uniforms justice by defeating the Tollesboro "B" team.

Cawood Calls Basketball

by WHAS Sports Director Cawood Ledford

The Fastest Draw In Dixie

"He's the fastest draw in the southeast." "He's got a quicker eight hand than Palladin." You might expect a description of a western hero on TV, but actually it was the picturesque fashion used by a Knoxville newspaperman to describe Kentucky's captain, Larry Pursiful.

The scribe could have added that Pursiful is a better marksman than the sagebrush characters that ride across our home screens. Possessed with lightning fast reflexes as well as tremendous break-away speed, Larry Pursiful is one of the most unerring shooters in the game of basketball. In speaking of the senior guard, Coach Adolph Rupp said, "he's a honey." The Baron went on to say, "he's always been a great shot, but up until this year we couldn't get him to shoot. He's probably the greatest shooter I've ever had at Kentucky." That puts Larry Pursiful in some pretty select company. While averaging around 20 points a game most of the season, Pursiful is connecting on over fifty percent of his field goal attempts. His accurate marksmanship can tear apart a zone defense, and his speed can carry him through a man-to-man defense for lay-ups. Recently shooting the WHAS microphone with me, assistant coach Harry Lancaster said, "we wish Larry wasn't so unselfish, and would shoot more. He's a tremendous shooter."

Larry is from Four Mile, Kentucky, a small mountain hamlet that gets its name from its distance from Pineville, the county seat of Bell County. To his family and teammates, Pursiful is known as "Chigger." Larry affectionately explains, "my older brother, Mrs. E. H. Bond and Mrs. Bessie Darrell gave me that name years ago and it just caught on." Unlike most players from the Eastern Kentucky hill country, started his basketball at an early age. For the first two years of high school he played at nearby Lone Jack. When Bell County High was consolidated at the end of his sophomore year, Pursiful took his talents there. Named to every all-state team his senior year, Kentucky was the only school to offer Pursiful a scholarship. It didn't matter. Larry says, "as long as I can remember, I've wanted to play at Kentucky."

Larry Pursiful considers his jump shot t.e best of his assortment of basket makers. With quick hands, he can launch the basketball in a split second. He is, indeed, the fastest draw in Dixie, at least with a basketball!

Rev. and Mrs. Clarence Hamm and children and Mrs. Millard were the only school to offer Pursiful a scholarship. It didn't Sunday dinner guests Sunday of Mrs. Voda Curran and matter. Larry says, "as long as girls.

"I wait on 10 customers

...and earn enough to pay for my week's electric cooking bill!"

"We have a lot of 'specials' in our store from time to time," says Mrs. Albert Hukle of Lexington, "but I've found there's no bigger bargain than electric cooking. I earn enough to pay for a whole week of electric cooking in the time it takes to wait on 10 customers!

"As a working mother," she adds, "I appreciate the modern convenience my electric range gives me. I can prepare a meal ahead of time... set the automatic timer... and dinner's done!

"Cleanup time's easier too. Electric cooking just doesn't make dirt. I don't think any range could be truly modern unless it's electric."
