CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

The eternal nature of true identity and goodness is emphasized Sunday at Christian Science church services. Opening selections from the Bible in the Lesson-Sermon on "Life" will include Psalm 36: "How excellent is thy loving kindness, O God! therefore the children of men put their trust under the shadow of thy wings. They shall be abundantly satisfied with the fatness of thy house: and thou shalt make them drink of the river of thy pleasures. For with thee is the fountain of life: in thy light shall we see light."

Reading from Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, by Mary Baker Eddy will include p. 246: "Life is eternal. We should find this out, and begin the demonstration thereof. Life and goodness are immortal. Let us then shape our views of existence into loveliness, holiness and unity, which, rather than into age and blight."

UPPER ROOM
THURSDAY, JULY 19
Read Psalm 31:19-24

Be thankful and have faith in your faith, be courageous and unfearing. 2 Corinthians 16: 13 RSV.

One morning from the nest I heard Mother call to Twin sister Mihoko you must clean out the flashbulb after Chikoko you go back to flowers for it.

I was at a loss what to do. Only a few days before I had heard them. Children, obey your parents. They must obey Mother. Set this altar involved idol worship which God has forbidden.

I prayed as I waited expectantly. If they would stand firm in their faith, then could be good witnesses to Mother. There was silence for a few moments. Then I heard Chikoko's voice. "Mother, I cannot buy flowers. For Buddha is not God." Mihoko added. "I feel the same way."

I was happy to hear their answer. To my surprise, Mother did not scold. Soon I heard the sound of her wood sandals on the street.

I ran out excitedly and stood by the window. Mother was walking down the street. Her face was unsmiling and stern. Her shoulders were stooped. Her hands were clasped behind her back. Her whole appearance was that of an unhappy person. Then I realized that she was actually ashamed of the unfortunateness of her children. Deeply disturbed, I ran to my room. There I fell on my knees and prayed.

Mother entered the room. She was my greatest friend. She was my greatest enemy. Then I realized that she was actually ashamed of the unfortunateness of her children. Deeply disturbed, I ran to my room. There I fell on my knees and prayed.

Mother entered the room. She was my greatest friend. She was my greatest enemy.

Large pieces of cooked meat may be frozen for later use if adequately wrapped. Put the meat in the freezer as soon as possible after the meal. Pack the meat compactly and be sure the wrapping fits snugly against it. The quality of leftover meat is about the same whether it is frozen or kept in the refrigerator; the advantage of freezing is that the meat keeps safely for a longer time.

Tangy Tidbits

Marinate canned or cooked asparagus spears in well-seasoned French dressing and serve on bed of greens, garnished with sieved hard-cooked egg and grated Tossed orange rind folded with whipped cream into mashed fruit cocktail, then spooned into cream puff shells makes a fancy dessert in no time.

Brown pork chops on both sides and spread with soured cream to bake right along with peach halves which have been studded with cloves and sprinkled with brown sugar

Helen's Favorite:
Nectarine Sundae Supreme
(Serves 6)
3 fresh nectarine, pared and sliced
1½ cup sliced fresh strawberries
¼ cup light corn syrup
1 teaspoon grated lime rind
2 tablespoons lime juice
½ teaspoon almond extract
1 quart vanilla ice cream
½ cup toasted flaked coconut
Blend together strawberries, peaches, corn syrup, rind, juice and extract. Chill for ½ hour. Serve over ice cream, then top with coconut

A sweet and tangy sauce for French toast (waffles, or pancakes) uses a can of quick-frozen orange juice, 1 juice can of water, ¼ cup honey and ½ cup chopped dates, simmered together for 5 minutes and served warm.

So delicious is this simple dip: ½ pint of sour cream, garlic powder, lemon juice and diced pimiento with instant onion and cayenne for seasoning and chopped ripe olives for texture interest.

Dates and pineapple added to shredded cabbage for slaw make an interesting variation.
