

MARKING PARKING SPACES—Brooks Henson and a crew of city workers mark parking area in front of the Carlisle Christian Church. Marking or painting a stripe is being done with a special brush purchased by the city for this purpose. With well marked areas there is little excuse for improper parking.—Mercury photo.

Mr. and Mrs. Osness revival song leaders

Mr. and Mrs. James M. Osness will be in charge of music at revival services at the Carlisle Christian Church Oct. 18-20.

The Osnesses are presently ministering to the Indian Creek Christian Church near Cynthiana, Ky.

Mr. Osness is a native of Rapid City, South Dakota. He received his education at Minnesota Bible College and the University of Minnesota, Minneapolis. He is a graduate of the University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, and graduated with a bachelor of arts degree in religion from the Cincinnati Bible Seminary. Prior to his present ministry with the Indian Creek Church, he served for one year as Associate Minister in charge of youth and education at the West Side Christian Church, Springfield, Illinois.

Mrs. Osness is a native of Crookston, Minnesota, where she majored in music. A piano teacher, she has taught music at Dakota Bible College, Huron, South Dakota, and at the Christian Elementary School, Springfield, Ill. She assists her husband in the conducting of revivals as song evangelist, organist, pianist, and soloist.

Mr. and Mrs. Osness are the parents of two sons.

The public is cordially invited to attend these great revival services each evening at 7:30 p.m. Dr. Charles Herndon is the evangelist.
