

Headquarters, Homemakers
by Mrs. Veach Delaney
Mrs. John Holland was a hostess in the Headquarters Homemakers for the October meeting. There were 16 members, 3 visitors, 2 children and Mrs. Margo Wilson present.
The devotion was given by Mrs. George Dale and Mrs. Veach Delaney.
Mrs. Emmett Darrell, co-president, had charge of the meeting. Mrs. Shelby Gandy, our president, has moved to Versailles. Mrs. Bobby Webb was elected to fill Mrs. Darrell's place.
Reports were given by the secretary, treasurer, Mrs. Elbert Smith, who reported that we had received "lets" to the Ruth Lyon's TV show (on January 1962).
We were happy to have Mrs. Otto Withers and Mrs. Joan Smith as new members.

After lunch Mrs. Calvin Withers and Mrs. Elbert Smith gave the lesson on sweet corn. They showed us sweet corn varieties and sweet corn shorts that they had developed with leaf and ear pigmentation. They also held up many other ways of decorating them, such as raw carrots, initials and grapevine ribbon.
Mrs. John Chisenbender, hostess, chairman, awarded prizes in the flower contest to Mrs. Emmett Darrell and Mrs. Reynolds Miller.

Mrs. George Dale had charge of recreation. Mrs. John Smith won top prize in the quiz.
The November meeting will be with Mrs. Shelby Gandy at Versailles, Ky.
