Memories

as it was sixty or more years ago. On the floor about the front entrance were bags of potatoes, and baskets of onions, corn, and other vegetables in season. In the front window next to the candy case hung bananas on the stalk, and on the shelf back of the adjacent counter were the half-dried beef, the bologna, and the freshly baked ham which Mr. Graeter personally carved for the customers. On the counter itself rested a great cheese, and handy to it under the counter was a barrel of crackers, and right here it is fitting to report that for one nickle or a half-dime one could buy a lunch of cheese and crackers, or for a dime a ham sandwich with mustard which was always available on the tables in the lunch room.

Back of the cheese counter and across the aisle were the glass cases containing the freshly baked loaves of bread and assorted cookies, dark ones and light ones both topped with sugar or sugar icing. Supplementing these items on Court Days was a Washington Pie baked in a large deep pan and cut out into generous sized pieces for lunches. It was always a question just what the baker put into those Washington pies. Preferably were the small round pies the top crusts of which were marked with "P" for peach, "A" for apple, and "M" for mince. Those pies were either five or ten cents each and were very tasty especially when warmed over.

One feature of Graeter's store was the kraut barrel. It stood near the window in the rear of the store and had a large stone in it to hold the kraut below the level of the brine. Once one acquired a taste for Graeter's kraut it lingered on through the years.

Mr. Graeter was a kindly gentleman, always considerate and generous to young fry. He had quite a sense of humor. Typical of it was his reply when you asked him to hurry, "Why didn't you come sooner!" His chief occupation was carving and serving luncheons.

Mrs. Graeter was chief clerk and buyer. At Christmas time she converted the lunch room into a display room for assorted toys, games and candies. What a temptation it was to try out all the toys and games and to sample the bright colored candies. Cream, coconut bars, licorice, peanut brittle and candy corn were favorites.

It is difficult to realize how merchandising has changed in such a short period of time. In the older days some few favored customers served themselves by dipping into the cracker barrel slicing off a bit of cheese, but in general the grocery business was very personalized, and the kind personality of Mr. and Mrs. Grater will ever be remembered by those whose privilege it was to "go down to Mr. Graeter's and get a loaf of bread and some baked ham".

KFWC fall board meeting opens Sept. 18

Louisville, Sept. 11—Cecil H. Underwood, former Governor of West Virginia, will be one of the featured speakers at the annual fall board meeting of the Kentucky Federation of Women's Clubs to be held in Louisville, September 18, 19 and 20.

Mrs. Adron Doran, Morehead, president of the KFWC, said today that over 400 members from throughout the state are expected for the three-day meeting.

Other speakers will include: Miss Cattie Lou Miller, Commissioner of Public Information, Commonwealth of Kentucky; Morton Walker, Professor of Speech and English at the University of Louisville; Dr. Gerald Jaggers, Director of Publications, Kentucky Education Association and Miss Virginia Murrell, Past President of KEA and Supervisor of Music at Bellevue schools.

"We are expecting a record breaking attendance at this year's meeting," said Mrs. Doran, "and we feel that we have five of the outstanding speakers available for our general sessions."

County school enrollment up

The Nicholas County schools had an overall gain in enrollment this year over last year although the school census had declined over the past year. The total enrollment this year was 931 as compared with 919 last year. Moorefield was the only school that had a decline in enrollment which was 182 as compared with 184 for the past year.

In the past few years there has been an up trend in school enrollment in Nicholas county and all over Kentucky, with better attendance. There are several reasons for this increase. First, there is a realization of the value of a better education by both parents and pupils.

The schools show more interest and in Nicholas county we have had excellent cooperation on the part of the law enforcement agencies in dealing with deliberate law violation. Both the county judge, Floyd Clark, and county attorney, Charles M. Cox, together with pupil personnel director Otta R. Fryman, have helped to increase regular school attendance.

Best school attendance is not enforced attendance. The child always gets a greater benefit from school when he attends school and applies himself with an aim of accomplishment as a goal.

DEFENSE COMMUNICATIONS AND YOUR TELEPHONE COMPANY. If this country is ever attacked by enemy planes or missiles, a few minutes' warning could mean the difference between national disaster and survival. Fortunately, we have a warning system, which, in case of attack, sends out an alert over nationwide telephone and teletypewriter networks . . . which the Bell System helped build, equip or connect. In the crucial hours following an attack, Bell System circuits would carry defense communications by special routing to prevent service interruptions. This communications system is unmatched anywhere in the world and is one of America's great strengths.

WHY NOT PURPLE YELLOW PAGES? There's a good reason why the Yellow Pages are yellow. Years ago it was decided to print the classified section of the phone book on colored paper for easy identification. The question was, what color? After research, eye specialists determined that one of the most readable color combinations was black print on yellow paper . . . result, the Yellow Pages! Most countries follow suit with either white or yellow classified sections . . . but not the French. In Paris the Yellow Pages are . . . pink! Whatever their color, use them often. The Yellow Pages are a quick, convenient link with the stores and services you use every day.

All trash to be picked up must be put on side of street or alley—Street Committee—

All trash must be in containers that are waterproof or of some type so that trash will not scatter.

Local trash pickup is costing the city a lot of money and unless the people cooperate with us so we can handle trash on a better basis some changes will have to be made — several of our adjoining cities are charging for pickup and we will be considering this unless we get full cooperation from everyone. Kenneth Smith in military food school

Pvt. Kenneth A. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Avery A. Smith, Carlisle, currently is undergoing advanced training in Company B (Food Service School) of the 2d Training Brigade's 7th Battalion at Fort Knox.

This course of instruction in the 2d Brigade, a major unit of the U. S. Army Training Center, Unit (USATCA), at the Kentucky fort, is of eight weeks duration. During this time Smith will receive instruction in the preparation and serving of food in military kitchens and mess halls and in the field. The fifth and sixth weeks will be spent obtaining "on the job" training as a cook in an Army mess hall.

He is scheduled to complete this course October 25.

The 18-year-old soldier entered the Army last July and completed basic combat training at Fort Knox.

Concert cards are now on sale

The Central Kentucky Concert and Lecture Series will present for the 1962-1963 season a schedule that is probably one of the most attractive ever arranged by the Association. Season memberships for adults are $8, for children under 14, $5. Memberships are now being sold by mail. Checks should be sent to Mrs. T. D. Best, 293 South Ashland Avenue, Lexington, Ky.

Tickets are sold on the basis of one price for the entire series and are never sold for individual concerts. Campaign headquarters will be at the Lafayette Hotel and Shackleton's, 417 East Main in Lexington, from Sept. 24 through Oct. 6. After the latter date, no tickets will be available. Central Kentucky Concert and Lecture Association memberships are available to everyone.

Attractions for this year's series are: Oct. 19, French National Orchestra; Nov. 6, National Ballet of Canada; Nov. 9, Alistair Cooke; Nov. 14, Van Cliburn; Nov. 27, Walter Slezak; Dec. 6, Helen Hayes - Maurice Evans; Jan. 10, Robert Shaw Chorale; Feb. 8, Bernstein Gala; Feb. 11, Edgar Snow; Feb. 26, Cincinnati Symphony; March 11, Jean Madeira; April 19, Ogden Nash. The concert and lecture series programs are presented by the association at an average cost of less than 66 cents for each attraction.

Wildcats take Muskies 21-0

The Stanford Wildcats were able to add another win to their record as they outcharged the Musketeers throughout the ballgame for a 21-0 victory.

Absent from the C. H. S. eleven was co-captain Gayle Kelley, whose experience and leadership was missed throughout the contest. Another Muskie grider, Bill Ledford, is still recuperating from a leg injury received in the Paris game and will be out of action for a while longer. Starting for the Muskies were Larry Anderson, back; Dickie Smart, back; Cecil Daugherty, back; Billy Barton, back; George Marshall, back; Harshall Cox, guard; Carl Evans, back; Vaughn Frey, end; Charles Feeback, end; Eddie Price, guard; and Elgin Blake, center.

Carlisle received the opening kickoff, but was unable to move the ball. Dickie Smart, got off a nice punt on the 40-yard line, but the Muskies failed to follow up with complete coverage of the punt.

The Wildcats took the punt on the 5 yard line and made a steady drive to the goal line. Fullback Dan Cooper, led this offensive drive and smashed over from the 12 yard line for the 6 point tally. Cooper also added the PAT.

In the second frame again the Muskie defense was unable to contain the Wildcats drive spearheaded by Cooper, who added 7 more points to the score before the half.

Early in the third period Stanford's Quarterback Don Holtzclaw, scored on a boot-

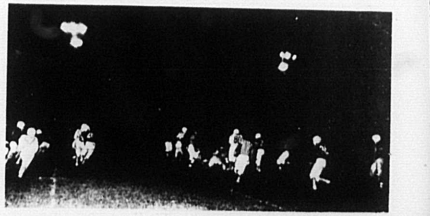
THE WILD CATS WERE HELD! on the line of scrimmage in the 3rd quarter as the Musketeer defense tightened. The Musketeers are from left numbers, 52, David Kerns; 5, Larry Anderson; Billy Barton, between referees, and 80, Elgin Blake.

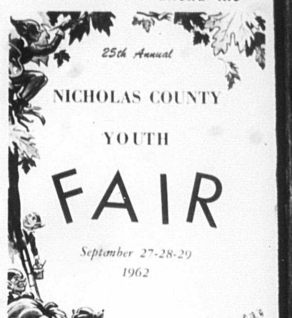


Moss injured in car accident

Elmer Moss was injured while backing his car out of his driveway on U. S. 68, eight miles north of Carlisle, last Sunday afternoon. His auto was struck by a car being driven by David Junior Walker, Elmhurst, Ohio.

Moss was thrown from the car and taken to Nicholas County Hospital where he received first aid treatment for multiple bruises and released. No one in the Walker car was injured.

Plan now to attend the



The 25th annual Nicholas County Youth Fair will be held at the Carlisle Armory, September 27-29. Most exhibits need to be entered Thursday afternoon, September 27 and Friday morning, September 28. All exhibits will be open to the public at noon, Friday, September 28.

The support and participation of every one in Nicholas county is needed to have a successful fair. There will be more classes than ever open for exhibits and prize money will be at an all time high. There is one significant change in this year's Baby Show. There will be four classes: Girls — 6-12 months and 12-20 months; Boys — 6-12 months and 12-20 months.

A general schedule for the fair is as follows: Thursday p.m. — Entry and judging of all Home Economics Exhibits. Friday a.m. — Entry of all other exhibits except livestock by 9:30 a.m. and judging.

Friday — 2:00 p.m. — Pony Show. 3:00 p.m. — Pet Show. Saturday 9:30 a.m. — Dairy Show. Saturday 2:00 p.m. Baby Show. 4:00 p.m. — Exhibits released.
