

Sunnyside Home-makers
By Mrs. Miram Hogg
Mrs. Lloyd Evans was hostess to the Sunnyside Home-makers and we certainly were glad to see so many of our members able to be out. There were 12 members, one visitor Mrs. Margie Wilson, and three children present.

Mrs. George called the meeting to order, Mrs. Crump gave the devotional, and Mrs. Arnold Bowser read the notes on the occasion.

After lunch, we were honored to have as guests: Ralph Wesley and Eddie Taylor, from the Nicholas County high debating team to talk about, "The European Common Market," and how it affects us. The lesson was then given by Mrs. Wilson, "Getting Along With Others," and certainly we must try to get along with others, and in order to, first we must try to understand ourselves. Good human relationships are like a two-way street. They require giving as well as receiving.

Our next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Tully Hunter, on April 11.

Girl Scouts Meet
Local Girl Scout Leaders held their regular monthly meeting Monday, April 1, at the home of Mrs. William Threlkeld.

The group agreed to hold an open house as soon as the work on the permanent meeting rooms are complete, and at the same time receive registrations for day camp and Camp Judy Layne. The leaders expressed a desire to have a number of local girls attend Camp Judy Layne, near Frenchburg. It is hoped that our neighborhood can set up some camperships to help girls who can not pay their entire expenses. Any organization or individual willing to help make this possible should contact Mrs. Threlkeld.

It was also decided to make Sunday, April 7, Girl Scout Sunday in Carlisle. Girl Scout Troops and their leaders will attend church together. All Catholic girls will attend the Catholic church with Mrs. Jack Morrison. Troop 13 will attend the Methodist church with Mrs. Milton Moreland and Mrs. Leon Riggs.
