LIBRARY GETS GIFTS
G. C. Townsend generously presented a new table and chairs to the Nicholas County Library. Usually tenants of a building are not given gifts by their landlords, but Mr. Townsend, who owns the library building saw the need for another study table with a durable work surface and purchased just such a table for use there. The library board gratefully acknowledges his gift as another gesture of community cooperation.

Dr. and Mrs. Jack T. Morford have given several stereo records of popular and semi-classical music to the library. The Library Board gratefully received this gift because there is a constant demand for more and more records of popular and semi-classical music for collections of classical music. However, they need more and more records of the type presented by the Morfords; therefore the library is grateful for this start on a popular record collection.
