

Second Place Float In 1962 Christmas Parade

THOUSANDS ARE EXPECTED to line the streets Saturday night for the annual Christmas parade float contest.

THOUSANDS WERE DELIGHTED with the beauty of the second place float from which Miss Paula Guthrie reigned. The float was the artistic work of the Community Women's Club and was appropriately named the "Holy Queen."

Christmas - What It Is

'62 Christmas Parade Float Winner

The winning float was the entry of the Carlisle Christian Church and depicted Christmas under the "red" star and armed guards and of a Christmas in a free country—such as we enjoy in America.
