THEY THAT AND POTTER A Page From The Diary of A Country Editor

Up before me, and for a Sunday morning, and find the day as drab and gray as any December...

And less than a fortnight till Christmas—Christmas will bring for a brief season a semblance of life to a drowsy neo-Christmas...

Heigho! there is much to do, ere the festive gyrations of the Christmas Eve...

Oh, to be a weather and weather-maker! To be a weather-maker...

But there is no one indoors for me this morning. I hear her rattle and find her peeking out from behind the door...

For those who shun elevators, there are 1,860 steps to the top of New York City's Empire State Building...

New York City has no priority on Broadway—only 17 U.S. towns and cities, and 1,700 villages, have such a street.
