EAST UNION HOMEMAKERS

The East Union Homemakers Club met at Nicholas County High School on Nov. 21. It was Family night. They celebrated with turkey and all the trimmings. There was a nice crowd present.

At the business meeting it was voted to have a food sale, Dec. 7, at K. U. The vote carried and we had most anything the housewife wanted. Our next meeting will be with Mrs. Glenn Grear in Carlisle. We all extend our sympathy to our member, Mrs. Thelma Lynman and all her family in the death of Mr. Lynman day night, December 22, at 7:30.

"We hope that everyone in the community will be planning to attend this annual presentation since our C. Y. F. has certainly put a lot of time and effort into this play to make it an inspiration to all who attend," said Mrs. Jack Becker who is helping direct the play.

The characters are: Narrator, Joe Blount; Mother Mrs. G. W. Baily; Father, Joe Allen Stone; Children, Carol Hunt, Jeff Becker, Karen Terrell, Anne House, and Kathy Duncan; Mary, Gayle Bradley; Joseph, William Terrell; Angel Gabriel, Mrs. William Terrell; Second Angel, Mary Judge; Inkeepers, David Kerns, J. T. Blount; Shepherds, Estill Hunt, Herbert Duncan; Wisemen, Estle Blake, Cliff House, Ray Blount; Carolers, Sue Curry, Ceve Stone, Billy House, Joyce Vice, Bonnie Whitaker, Judy Whitaker; Junior Choir, Sandra Reid, Micheal Judge, Gregory Reid, Tony Toy; Choir, Mrs. Estill Hunt, Mrs. Ralph Toy, Mrs. Cliff House, Mrs. Ruth Heilman, Mrs. Herbert Duncan, Mrs. Herman Vice.

Others helping produce the play are Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Sillman. Jack Becker will be taking care of the properties and lighting.

Tentative practice dates are December 11, 16, 18 and 22.

"The annual gift exchange and treats will take place on Sunday morning, December 22, following Sunday School, instead of that night following the play," Joe Blount, Superintendent of the Sunday School, has announced.

School Employees Feted At Dinner

Over 100 Nicholas County School personnel, board of education, and guests were in attendance at the recent Sixth Annual Nicholas County School Dinner on December 5, at the County High School. Dr. and Mrs. W. R. Kingsolver were the guest speakers and showed slides of their trip through Egypt, the Holy Land and adjoining countries.

Mrs. Jimmy Conrad, president of the Nicholas County Teachers Organization was toastmistress for the occasion. Donald Elder, Supervisor, gave the invocation.

A selection of Christmas Carols was given by the Tonettes, Sharon Ockerman, Paula Donovan, Judy Curtis, and Nancy Booth, following the banquet served by FHA and FFA members.

Also, as part of the program William Nutter, Principal of Nicholas County Elementary School, gave special recognition to Mrs. Brooks Henson retired Nicholas County teacher of thirty-two years teaching in Nicholas County Schools. Mr. Nutter called upon Mrs. Blanch Cameron to present to Mrs. Henson an engraved silver fruit bowl.

MOOD MAKERS--These carolers set the stage for the Christmas parade Saturday night with many popular Yuletide songs.

Charles Wilson, N. C. H. S. principal, presented a book from the Nicholas County Teacher's Organization to Mr. Wesley, County Superintendent.
